

Ont. Approves Holland River Conservation

The Holland River Valley conservation authority has been approved by the provincial government. Municipalities in the Holland watershed, including Newmarket and Aurora, approved of the formation of the authority earlier this year.

The authority had been under consideration for at least two years and its formation was the watershed area. To be known as the Upper Holland Valley Conservation Authority, it includes Aurora, Newmarket, East Gwillimbury township, King township and Whitchurch urged by some municipalities in township.

At a future meeting, officers will be elected and eventually the authority will decide on conservation programs to be undertaken. Plans will be submitted to the Ontario Department of Planning and Development. The Ontario government makes grants to flood control, reforestation and other conservation projects.

BAND CONCERT SUNDAY

The Newmarket Citizens' Band will play a concert in the Newmarket arena this Sunday evening at 8 p.m. There will be a versatile program, including "Overture Romantique," the test piece which won second prize at the Canadian National Exhibition. A cornet trio and mandolin duets will be features of interest.

MEDICAL JOURNAL MAKES REPORT ON DIABETES SURVEY

The formal report of the diabetic survey in Newmarket two years ago has been given in the current issue of the Canadian Medical Association Journal under the title of "Diabetes in an Ontario Community." The report was written by Dr. A. J. Kenny, A. L. Chute and C. H. Best.

Newmarket was chosen for the survey because its population, in age and occupation, most closely resembled the national average. It was thought that if the incidence of diabetes in Newmarket could be established, the figure would hold for the rest of the country.

The report describes how clinics were set up, and measures taken to be sure everyone was tested. The survey was 81 per cent complete. Of the 4,419 people tested, 21 cases of diabetes were discovered. These, added to known diabetic patients, established an incidence of 2.1 per cent.

A foot-note to the report expresses appreciation for the assistance given the survey team by Dr. J. G. Cock, then chairman of the board of health, "the local committee members, the canvassers, and many others who gave voluntary help in the work. Also to the physicians of Newmarket, the town council, the Newmarket Era and Express, and the many clubs and organizations who gave valuable support."

WINS LEGION CUP

R. Boldt, 40 Blake St., Barrie, won a new car in the Newmarket branch, Canadian Legion draw, last Saturday night. The winning ticket, number 36757, was drawn at an auction sale and bingo held by the Legion at the arena.

Legion officers say that the auction sale was a success and that it may be made an annual event. Chairman of the auction sale committee, Bill Tullock, expressed thanks to those who contributed merchandise for auction and to those who attended the sale.

Rush Super Highway Before Freeze-Up

The job of building the Toronto to Barrie double-lane highway is a tremendous one. There is more than a million dollars worth of construction machinery now at work, rushing the completion before freeze-up of gravel roadbed and asphalt top to serve temporarily until spring.

Residents in the district have regrets about some farm lands being torn up and valuable areas of timber being cut down. Pastoral scenes have been changed by heavy machinery in Vaughan and King townships but the losses are offset by the usefulness of a much-needed super highway from Toronto north.

The dam at Newmarket's Water St. bridge caught the eye of a Toronto Telegram photographer last week. The Tely published a special feature story on Newmarket and its history.

Toronto Paper Writes Up Newmarket As Proud Centre With Roots Deep In Past

Newmarket was "put on the map" by a full-length feature story devoted to the history and activities of the town in last Saturday's Toronto Evening Telegram. The wide publicity this gave the town is evident in letters received by the Era and Express this week.

One letter, from Mrs. G. McGuffin of Weston, recalls her early life in Newmarket. She has been away from Newmarket for 30 years. She lived on Hamilton St. Reading about Pickering College, she writes, "brought back old memories as we lived beside the college farm. Many an apple I have had out of the orchard. I was sorry to see it cut down as it would be hard to find any apples to taste like those did."

"When I was about 12 years old and the radio was just coming out, I will never forget walking down the lane behind Pickering College with Peter Brown and his daughter, now Mrs. W. D. Dennie. Elsworth Rogers' father ran the farm and Mr. Brown was caretaker. He vowed Elsworth would blow up the college as he was in one of the top rooms with a radio set. I think he did reach England. I'm not sure but I always looked for the blow-up which never came and radio did."

Another correspondent expressed regret that the write-up of Newmarket did not include a few comments about Glenville, specifically Glenville's famous athlete, E. W. Johnston, who the correspondent describes as the world's greatest athlete of his day. He died in 1913, two of his records still standing.

Mrs. Bert W. A. Johnston writes from Oshawa: "He started to train as a boy by racing from Glenville to Newmarket and back to get the mail for his mother. His mother lived at the bottom of that very steep hill into Glenville. I remember going down that hill. I was sure frightened when as you couldn't see the horses' heads."

"Also Sir John A. MacDonald held political meetings in his home."

Johnston excelled in wrestling, boxing, tossing the caber, swinging the hammer, high jumping, pole vaulting and walking. Mrs. Johnston, who married E. W. Johnston's eldest son, says she hasn't any dates of her father-in-law's career but that his sons have huge scrapbooks of clippings about his athletic prowess.

The Telegram write-up was complimentary to Newmarket which was rescribed as a "proud centre with good solid roots which was described as a 'proud port started with:

"Of the beaten path, with one of the narrowest main streets in Canada, and no sign to welcome visitors, Newmarket might have a serious neurosis and inferiority complex—only it hasn't. Instead it sits up there in York County, on the east branch of the Holland River, with a complacent grin on its face."

"Yet no one can tell it egotistical, it has what it takes and can prove it. Statistics show it's just about the best adjusted community for its size in the country."

Newmarket's industries and their accomplishments are all mentioned, and the town's housing schemes. "Only complaint from the visitors' viewpoint—the town folk are so busy it is hard to see them," the report says.

"But when you've passed that hurdle, you find an enthusiastic, friendly group who are eager to point out the advantages of their town."

"It's a good town—no fooling about that," said Mayor Joseph Vale. "It's a tremendous business town in the centre of a good farming district and with a great diversity of industry."

He then settled back in his swivel chair, while his clients waited in an outer office for legal advice, and explained why he thinks his town, which he has headed since 1947, is a "dandy." Not only has it good solid roots, going back to the beginning of the 1800's, but it is progressive and booming today.

Recent official census gave the population as around 5,300, but the mayor thinks that's low, since it has been "growing rapidly in the last five years. You know we are really a suburb of Toronto, with 200 commuting daily, but on the other hand we have our own suburban area," he pointed out.

Complete Floodlights For End Next Week

LIONS MAKE START ON INVESTIGATION INTO POOL COSTS

Investigation into swimming pool costs has been started by a Newmarket Lions club civic improvement committee, appointed last week.

Chairman of the committee, Charles E. Boyd, said that a letter has been written to the Lions district organization for a list of swimming pools within a 75-mile radius of Newmarket. It is expected that members of the committee will inspect pools in this district.

The committee has already written to one engineering company for approximate costs of a pool and several letters have been sent out to find out the cost of filtration. The plan is to pick out types of pools which the committee likes and find the approximate costs. Then the pool best suited for Newmarket will be chosen.

When the committee has brought in a full report on its investigations, the Lions will hold an open meeting for discussion.

BUSY BEAVERS AT XMAS TOY REPAIRS. NEED DISCARDS

The Busy Beavers will be back at work in Newmarket on the first Wednesday in October. The Busy Beavers are youngsters who rebuild old and broken toys under the direction of Mr. Harold Tite, Bolton Ave.

Last year the Beavers reconditioned 135 kiddie cars, wagons, dolls, trucks, etc., for the Lions Christmas basket fund and this year their object is to remodel 250. But they need the help of Newmarket residents who can donate used or discarded toys, no matter in what condition they are.

Anyone who has used toys, books or games, may take them to Mr. Tite's residence on Bolton Ave. or call Mr. Tite at 855. He will pick up the toys. In their workshop in Mr. Tite's basement, the Busy Beavers will be working hard to complete their Christmas supply for the Lions baskets.

'HARVEY' TO BE DRAMATIC CLUB'S SEASON OPENER

The Newmarket Dramatic club will present "Harvey" as its first play of the season at the Newmarket town hall on October 18, 19 and 20. "Harvey" is a Pulitzer Prize winning comedy which became famous on the stage and screen.

The opening production has promise of rivaling "Dirty Work at the Crossroads" and "Arsenic and Old Lace" presented last season. Tickets will go on sale October 1. Further announcements are to be made about the play.

OPTIMISTS HOLD CORN ROAST AT MORTON'S COTTAGE

Fifty members of the Newmarket Optimist club and their wives attended an Optimist corn roast at Howard Morton's cottage, Indianola Beach, last Saturday evening. Nick Styke was master of ceremonies, ably assisted by Optimist recreation chairman, John Fraser.

The program was highlighted by a barber shop quartet: Jack Hamilton, Morley Hunter, Joe Dales and Don Cummings. Various musical numbers were played by a small instrumental group which featured string, woodwind and percussion instruments, including a mouth organ and a small harp.

The fire was stoked by Optimist Bob Hall who was designated chief stoker, first class.

PROTEST TO BOARD ON ARRANGEMENTS FOR GRADE CLASSES

A group of mothers of public school pupils appeared before the Newmarket public school board last Friday night with complaints about the way the grade seven classes had been arranged. They specifically objected to the inclusion of grade sevens in a class of grade sixes.

H. A. Jackson, supervising principal, explained how he set up the classes but the mothers were not satisfied. The board, after hearing their complaints, said they would do what could be done, if anything.

Newmarket's new ball park floodlights at the fair grounds will be ready for final electrical inspection early next week, barring unforeseen difficulties. A date for the first night game has not been set but it is possible that the floodlight committee will arrange a game for the end of the week.

Wiring is near completion and an electrical inspector will be making a preliminary check of the installations today. A transformer and feeder lines will be connected up with town hydro. Engineers from the Northern Electric Co. which supplied the lights will come to Newmarket to handle the delicate job of aiming the lights correctly.

The fair grounds have been a beehive of activity over this past week. The rush to finish the job will probably result in complete wiring tonight. Town hydro employees Wendell Gilbert and Bob Walker have saved the committee many dollars. The two electricians have climbed up among the floodlights, 60 feet from the ground, to connect the feeder lines. It requires close to two hours to complete the work on each standard.

The first line of secondary wiring was strung Wednesday evening along the west side of the diamond poles and the east side should go up this evening. The service box wiring is also nearing completion and will be ready for the inspector today.

The Committee has been very pleased with the response of the volunteers over the past week. They were John Sheddlock, Bob Walker, Wendell Gilbert, Geo. Watt, Chas. VanZant, Geo. Haskett, Ray Parliament, Cyril Kett, Eddie Gibson, Bill Haskett, Chas. McDonald, Frank Newton, Bruce Andrews, A. H. Topham, Cephus Andrews, Jack Donaldson, Harold Laplante, Clarence DeLallaye.

Dairy Farmers Anxious About Court Decision On Milk Price Appeal

Milk producers in this district are awaiting, with some concern, the outcome of the distributors' appeal against the Milk Control Board's award of an increase of 35 cents a hundredweight on milk prices to the producers. The appeal will be heard before the Supreme Court of Ontario on September 21.

The distributors claim there was no quorum of the board competent to sit and decide the matter and bring in an award: that the board's decision was improperly influenced by persons who are not members of the board.

Mayor McCallum refused to sign the award, arguing that there should not be an increase to the producers until certain economies of distribution had been proven. M. G. Hart, distributor representative, resigned from the board in July. He charged that there had been outside interference.

Producers feel that if the board's decision is not upheld by court, it will mean an end to the present form of marketing milk under which a board referees prices to producer, distributor and consumer. It was felt too that if the court upheld the court upheld the appeal, it could mean the return to individual bargaining on prices between producer and distributor, and the loss of all that has been gained in orderly marketing over the last ten years or so.

The producers in this district have been discussing the possibility of establishing a milk marketing agency under which the producers would assume more control over the marketing of their product. At present, however, there is no provincial legislation which would permit such an agency. It is thought by some that Premier Frost's recent ultimatum to the distributors to improve their methods or someone else would take over, was an indication that the government would favor such legislation.

The producers say that in the past, they have accepted the board's decisions although they have seldom, if ever, been granted the prices they sought. The producers say that if the distributors in their turn refuse a decision which distributors disapprove of, then the value of the Milk Board has been lost.

Pickering College Term Opens, Plans 'Group Of Seven' Show

Argentina, Columbia, Trinidad and Bermuda have representatives in the student body at Pickering College this year as the fall term opens. Every year the College draws students from far-off South American countries and the United States. Canada is represented from the west coast to Quebec.

Two former staff members who have returned are F. D. L. Stewart, who has been with the Department of External Affairs at Ottawa and K. G. McLaren, who has been at the Ontario College of Education for a year.

Brian Crane, from British Columbia, is a new member of the staff who spent the summer working with the staff of the U.N. Secretariat in New York. Three tutors on the staff are from Etobicoke, Temiskaming and Toronto.

Headmaster R. E. K. Rourke announced that the College will present an art show, starting at the middle of October, to display paintings by the Group of Seven, the first Canadian school of landscape painting. It will be open to the public for two weeks.

The thirty odd paintings to be shown will be made up of Mr. Rourke's own collection, several paintings belonging to the College and six large gallery paintings being sent by the National Gallery.

The Group of Seven Canadian painters includes Lauren Harris, Arthur Lismer, A. Y. Jackson, the late J. H. MacDonald, the late Franklin Carmichael, Fred Varley and the late Franz Johnson who left the group and was replaced by A. J. Casson. Paintings by both Johnson and Casson, now president of the Royal Canadian Academy, will be shown. The College plans to have at least two art shows a year. Plans are being made for another show in February to display paintings by artists within a 30 mile radius of Newmarket.

The Story Of SHARON

By
ETHEL WILLSON TREWHELLA

This is the fifteenth instalment of a continuing—"Story of Sharon" from its founding to the present. The story was written after almost two years of research and will, we believe, be a major contribution to knowledge of the past. The remaining installments will follow weekly.

In this little acre dedicated to respectful memory the head-stones are higher and more ornate than those seen in Friends' burying grounds and there is also a noticeable number of monuments. As carefully as one could discover there are 283 graves but it is reasonably certain, that including those unmarked, some of which have all but entirely disappeared, there are considerably more than 300.

It was with difficulty some names were deciphered because mildew had spread its musty cloak, and some had sunken until data was wholly illegible. Here and there a stone had cracked and crumbled, others were overturned with inscription face deep in the weedy brambles. A few were common field stones.
All of this points to a very early use of this bit of ground as a burial place. One is impressed by the number of tiny graves, significant of the infant mortality during epidemics of early times.

Of the dates previous to 1850, 57 marked openings were counted. The early dates decipher-able were in 1820, William Wilson, David Terry; 1822, Benjamin Terry; 1824, Anna Briggs; 1825, Eleanor Hughes; 1826,
Sarah Lundy, Absalom Willson; 1827, David Willson, Sarah Wilson, Mary (Doan) Hughes; 1828, Hugh D. Willson; 1829, William
Franklin Willson, Susan Willson;
1830, Lucy Hill, Rebecca Hughes, Hannah Dennis; 1832, Simpson
Hill, Simpson Reid; 1833, Isa-bella Willson, Mary Reid, Anne Reid; 1834, George Wright, Robert Briggs; 1835, Catharine Brammer, Henry Chaplain Mos-ier, J. H. Willson, Israel Doan, Isabella Doan, Martha Haines;
1837, Sarah Gilrie, Hugh Wilson, Harriet Morris; 1838, Ann Terry, Rachel Terry, Benjamin
Terry, John Terry, Elizabeth Terry; 1839, Daniel Reid, Hugh
D. Morris, Enoch Gilrie; 1840, Catharine Willson; 1841, Bennett Morris; 1842, Mariah Terry; 1844, William Dunham; 1846,
Israel Lundy; 1847, Wait Ann Doan, Murdoch McLeod, Rachel McLeod, Donald McLeod; 1848,
George Brammer, Israel Willson,
George Hollingshead, Joel Hill.
The most recent burial was in 1935.

Funeral Customs

In those remote days of the Children of Peace, and at the time when much of the land was still forested with only a trail along which they floundered, certain funeral customs prevailed. No hearse or funeral car existed; instead, a wooden bier, with two handles at each end, was carried by four male bearers, and in procession walked young women dressed in white and carrying banners. At one period in their history the Sharon band, playing solemn music, formed a part of the cortege. The ancient bier used on these occasions is to be seen in the Temple.

This burial ground, a very ancient landmark, represents a period in the collective life of East Gwillimbury and many old faces and forms are hidden beneath the grass. All were not members of the Children of Peace. The plot is conspicuously situated on one of Ontario's most travelled highways and in it modern Sharon has a memorial of potential beauty.

A custom, that with the decline of the Davidites, has ceased, was that on Sunday afternoons the Sharon silver band marched to this cemetery and rendered a program of sacred music, and for years afterwards the old bandstand remained in the northwest corner. This corner was sacred to the memory of an increasing number of the Wilson families. A two-plank walk had led from the village to the cemetery gate and long after that had fallen into disuse the remaining two lengths were to be seen. This wooden remnant lay in an oasis of fragrant tansy against a backdrop of snake fence where a majestic elm tree spread its benevolent shade over the congregated sheep which had the freedom of the road. In April, 1880, Amos J.

Hughes appeared at meeting of council and asked aid to lay sidewalk from Sharon to the burying ground. Twenty-five dollars were granted and placed in the care of William Graham for that purpose.

Stones Repaired

Since the vandalism in 1949 the stones of David Willson, the founder of the Society, with the stone of his wife, have been repaired and have been neatly embedded in permanent arrangement. The epitaph poetry on the stone of David Willson is difficult to decipher:

"Through years of toil and sorrow deep,
My troubled days are passing on,
And now ..... in lasting sleep,
My friends my voice will hear no more.
My friends that look upon my grave

For me may sigh .....
In grief I ..... you
But now for you I'll toil no more.
My house upon a Rock did stand
Where storms did beat .....
There's One alone can .....
Who all must .....
On the stone of his wife,
Phebe Titus, the following may be read:

"To a great age my life hath been,
And though my body's gone,
My mind was like the olive green

And fruit was seen thereon.
O may my prayer forever live
In my Redeemer's mind,
And may the Lord a blessing give
To those I leave behind."

Founders of Sharon

In this small plot rest a portion of the founders of Sharon.
The names of the brothers, Eb-enezzer Doan and wife, Elizabeth Paxon; John Doan and wife, Elizabeth Stockdale; Mahlon Doan and wife, Rebecca Harley,—they had emigrated from Bucks County, Pennsylvania, to Canada in 1808, "accomplishing their journey with great inconvenience and labor. They came in wagons with canvas stretched over the top and travelled by way of Bethlehem and over the Alleghany mountains, halting to cook their meals and to make camp at night. They were one month making the journey."

Here lies Jesse Doan and wife.
Jesse Doan was the leader of the famous Sharon band and on his memorial stone is carved:

"This marble tomb our father
dear
Shall thy rare memory long display,
Thy melody hath charmed the ear
On many a social hallowed day,
May all thy faculties retain
On generations still descend, Thy talents might with us remain While chords of music sweetly blend."

To wander further is to recall the name of John Reid who came to Sharon early in the century and joined the Children of Peace, later the Episcopal Methodists. He was one of the few who in 1864 could recollect Sharon as a wilderness and was another of those of undaunted courage who lived to see the fruits of their labor in golden harvests.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Flossie Gooding

Active in church circles for many years, Mrs. Flossie Louise Gooding of Gormley died at her home on August 22, following a long period of poor health.

She was born in Dundalk in 1891, the daughter of John J.
Duncan, and in 1912 married the late Rev. A. T. Gooding, who was tragically killed in a railroad crossing accident at Gormley in May, 1931. Mrs. Gooding made a contribution to the community as minister's wife and homemaker, a member of the United Missionary Church, Gormley.

She is survived by two sons,
Eldon of Ulferson, and Vernon of Streetsville; five daughters, Evelyn (Mrs. Charles Milled) of Queensville, Dorothy (Mrs.
Floyd Winger), Queensville, Dorine (Mrs. Allan Doner), Gormley, Ruth (Mrs. Tom Christlaw), Toronto, Eileen (Mrs. Ken Jones), Gormley; and nine grandchildren. One son, Gordon, is deceased. Surviving brothers and sisters are Jim and Bert of Vermilion, Alta., George and Gordon of Dundalk, Mrs. M.
Wraggall, Proton Station, Mrs.
J. Copeland, Ceylon, Mrs. N.
Wilson, Dundalk, Mrs. C. Foster, Creemore, Mrs. R. Taylor, New Toronto.

On August 24 a private service was held at her home at 2 p.m., and a service at 2:30 p.m. in Gormley United Missionary
Church, conducted by Rev. L.
K. Sider, assisted by Rev. M.
Bricker and Rev. F. G. Huson, both of Toronto. Mr. Howard Baker sang the solo, "Face to Face." Many flowers were sent in tribute, and 21 Gideon Bibles were donated in memory of Mrs.
Gooding. Pallbearers were R.
Mansbridge, G. Cullen, E. Hunt,
F. Harvey, C. Doner, C. Steck-
ley. Interment was in Heise Hill cemetery, Gormley.

Africa is within ten miles of Europe.

A select audience of over 500 music lovers was thrilled by the Mundinger Accordion Orchestra in Newmarket arena last Friday evening. From the moment the conductor stepped smartly to his place before this company of 20 young people, to the final crescendo of the Orpheus Overture, the old arena was transformed into a concert hall, and re-echoed to such music as has never been heard there before.

Every adult and child in the audience was amazed at the artistry displayed by these clever young musicians. Their beautiful tone, smooth phrasing, and rich harmonies frequently approached that of a fine orchestra of strings and woodwinds. A small percussion section of tympani and cymbals would have completed the illusion; and always there was present that legato background of the bass section. This was specially true of their outstanding work in Cavalleria Rusticana and the Pilgrims' Chorus.

The soloists were all excellent.
The finger dexterity and thorough musicianship revealed by John Giovanelli and Jerry Cin-golani won them an ovation.
Of course, these young folk are blessed with unusual musical ability, but their triumph on Friday evening showed that they are also hard workers, willing to submit themselves completely to the strict discipline of rehearsals.
With his uni-manual conducting
Mr. Mundinger achieves perfect control over his players.

Our community is greatly indebted to the courageous venture of the Newmarket Lions Club in bringing to us this extraordinary musical treat.

COURTESY PHONE 1038 SERVICE

Courteously Yours..

Giving you the kind of telephone service you want is our job.

You want it to be fast and dependable—and to keep on getting better. But at the same time, we believe there's more to good service than just technical efficiency and steady improvement.

We think you like telephone people to be friendly, pleasant and easy to get along with. You want to deal with someone who takes a real interest in your problems and who is willing to give you a little extra attention.

That's the kind of service we want you to have. It makes your telephone mean more to you, makes our job mean more to us.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA

The country people surely get around these days. We've a letter from Mrs. W. R. Steeper, our Mount Albert correspondent, from somewhere in the wilds of western United States. Mr. and Mrs. Steeper have been on a motor trip which has taken them across the continent and to the Pacific coast. They're heading north and back through western Canada.

But such a trip is really not unique any longer, not in the sense it was 20 years ago when the farthest most of us got from home was the back fence. Our columns now record similar trips every week. In the winter, enough district residents visit Florida to set up a North York colony. The motor car has done it, most of it, at any rate. Good roads and reliable transportation. But even with these essentials, such trips would be impossible without the leisure and the means. The fact that you and I and the next door neighbor can make such trips is a sure indication of changing times.

At the time of writing this column, we had not yet seen how the Evening Telegram put Newmarket "on the map." And we're anxious too because they took our picture. We don't know yet whether it was a gesture of good-will or that they actually intend to use it. What amused us about it was that the photographer claimed that our sign, modest as it is, was the only "Newmarket" sign he could find.

It is apparently the custom in this newspaper series to photograph the town's signboard by way of introduction. "Couldn't find anything but a traffic sign at Yonge St. and that was no good," the photographer said. We told him of the Lions sign on Eagle St. "Must have missed it," he said. The exchange tickled our fancy because the posting of a sign on Yonge St. has been a major issue in these columns. And here was some more fuel for the fire.

Had a chat with a friend of ours out the Glenville side-road. "I tell you boy," he said, "the farmer's just not taking it any longer." "You serious?" we asked. "I can name you a dozen who are folding their tents," he replied. Our friend says that the temper of the farmers is changing. In a word, they're "fed up" with the way conditions are nowadays. "What conditions, particularly?" we asked.

"Listen boy," he said. "You'll concede that the farmer is only human." No argument there. "Well, the farmer is fed up with watching the city folk work their eight-hour day and then sit on their front porch at the country's expense, and brother, that means at your and my expense."

Why should the farmer work his head off? Why should the farmer climb out of bed at dawn and back in at midnight? "No sense to it," he said. "And then the city folk yell about prices?"

"Listen," he said. "We need help on the farms but you go into town and there're a dozen in the pool halls and on the street corner, and can you get them to work? No sir. It doesn't make sense. Something's wrong."

"So?" we prompted. "So we're taking a holiday too. Cutting down our herds and reducing our acreages. Listen, I'll bet you there are 20 or so separators for sale this fall. Why should we work our heads off and the rest coast. The devil with it."

"Many others think like you do?" we asked.

"We all do," he said.

Rightly or wrongly, we hear a lot of talk like our friend's these days. It's more than the usual grouching. Something's out of joint somewhere, and even if they aren't sure just what it is, a lot of people have their own opinions and they aren't very happy.

So, these are changing times. So, there's a war on and all the rest. The fact still remains that there's a lot of people who don't like the looks of the future.

From the Files of 25 and 50 Years Ago

SEPTEMBER 17, 1926
Miss Jean Peppiatt, a student at Newmarket high school, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peppiatt, has won the scholarship donated by Loretta Abbey and entitles the winner to four years' free tuition at St. Michael's College, Toronto. Miss Peppiatt took first-class honors in nine subjects, second-class in four and third-class in one.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1901
Mr. James Caldwell, Chicago, brother of the late J. B. Caldwell, arrived in town on Monday to be present at the Old Boys' reunion. He left here in 1855.

Photographer Bogart took a portrait of the Newmarket bicycle club of the '20's which included J. E. Hughes, W. S. Sutherland, J. A. Kelman, R. Gair, T. C. Watson, A. Binns, E. S. Cane, W. L. Bond, R. McLean and E. A. Bogart. J. A. Ashworth was not present for the picture and Frank Millard and Art Gartley have passed away.

There was a grand market last Saturday; nearly all kinds of farm produce in abundance. Choice butter sold at 20c, the usual price being 18 and 19c. Eggs were firm at 12c a dozen. Apples were 25c a basket, pears 25c a peck, plums from 30 to 40c per peck, crabapples 20c a basket, potatoes 60c a bushel.

There are 50 pupils out of the 80 at Newmarket high school studying shorthand. Another typewriter was added this week.

Miss Bell Burrows, who has been spending the summer months with her mother, Mrs. E. Burrows, Sutton, has returned to her duty as night superintendent of King's County hospital, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Twenty-one students are now attending the newly-established continuation class at Mount Albert.

Slight frosts were experienced in the Mount Albert locality on Wednesday but not much damage was done.

For want of room at the Jackson House, the Highlanders occupied the town hall on Wednesday night as sleeping quarters.

THURSDAY, THE TWENTIETH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-ONE

ALL OUT FOR SWIMMING POOL

The immediate appeal of the Lions Club proposal for a new swimming pool is that it is directed to the whole community. The club has asked its civic improvement committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Charles Boyd to assemble all the facts it can about cost, type of construction, and similar matters. It is intended to present the committee's report to a meeting of representatives of all organizations in Newmarket, and that from such a meeting will come a representative committee.

That is the only way, we believe, that such a project can be successfully undertaken. There have been many efforts to start a swimming pool campaign and those who have tried in the past have something of a "vested interest" in the pool. Additionally, the flood-light committee has shown a large interest in the project. In these groups there are resources of effort and means which will make the accomplishment that much more successful.

But even beyond this circumstance is the appeal of the project for the whole community. A swimming pool is a major public need, not only for the wholesome recreation it provides, but because learning how to swim and be safe in the water is as essential to the education of a young Canadian as the alphabet.

Here is a project which all of us can undertake for the benefit of us all. There is a warmth, a sense of sharing, in such a task which helps compound that elusive but very valuable, community asset, a town spirit. We had something of that spirit in the artificial ice campaign. We can revive it in a swimming pool campaign.

KILLING THE GOOSE . . .

A committee of the town council is considering means by which the newly paved market square can be made to pay its way. The immediate proposal has been for parking meters and to this end, council heard advice from a meter representative on the kinds of meters available (it is proposed to put in long-term meters for all-day parking) and ways in which the parking spaces can be set out.

This, we think, would be a mistake. Parking meters were installed originally to keep cars on Main St. moving, thus easing the daily traffic jams. Before meters were installed, adequate free parking space was provided between Water and Timothy Sts. and behind the post office. It was recognized then that meters would be impractical without this auxiliary parking space.

Granted that the market square offers the pleasures of smooth driving, and the safeguards to be had from parking next door to the police station, the fact remains that the market square was part of that free auxiliary parking system and to place it on a cash basis is to invite the charge of usury from customers of the town. Rather than soak the customer of Newmarket's stores and services, it would be more to the point if the other parking places were paved too. The emphasis should be on service, not on making additional dollars from those who come to town.

We are inclined to believe that the council is somewhat fascinated by the income from meters, and if they are placed in the market square it is only a short step to metering the other free parking lots. If the town is intent on wringing every extra penny it can from its customers it would be more convenient to erect toll-gates at all our entrances instead.

SUBSIDIES THE ANSWER?

The minister for welfare in Ontario, Hon. W. A. Goodfellow, must come from a farm constituency for he speaks with considerable authority of farm problems. And that is something in a government which so far has done little but aggravate these same problems. Mr. Goodfellow, opening a welfare conference in Toronto last week, said that those who expect decreases in the price of farm products will be disappointed.

"Farm production is falling off all the time, yet our population is increasing. But until the 90-hour work-week is abolished on our Canadian farms, and until the prices paid for farm produce nearly equal the wages paid by industry we can look for no decreases in farm prices," he said.

Mr. Goodfellow's comment was almost incidental to his main point, that some means must be taken to assure low income groups a correct diet. With food prices up, he proposed a subsidy from Ottawa on milk and bread. If we are to make free enterprise work, "we must make sure that we have the economic and social measures necessary to form a cushion for those in the community who cannot maintain the pace set by the majority," he said.

There is much to be said for Mr. Goodfellow's proposal of a cushion for the low income groups but subsidies would not be the best means of providing it. For one thing, subsidies without the balancing weight of rationing would be a tremendous waste of state money. And too, it is impossible to subsidize isolated items without becoming involved in a program which would subsidize all related items, an endless list. And if such a program were carried to its bitter end it would mean, eventually, a program of state control of production, an impossible undertaking as is being demonstrated in England now.

But the worst offence of a subsidized food program is that it encourages tendencies which add to retail prices. In milk for example, an inefficient delivery system adds to the cost. There are other examples of costly processing and distribution, all of which add up to the fact that the producer only gets around half of the consumer's dollar, the rest used up by middlemen's costs.

If Mr. Goodfellow could devise ways by which this spread could be reduced, he would not only lower food prices, but he would put the farm economy on a more solid footing. But to apply subsidies would be to simply encourage the present practices.

LAW TOO INDEFINITE

A farmer may shoot a dog if he finds it straying on land upon which sheep are habitually kept. This provincial act serves a very real purpose in the protection of flocks. Unfortunately, it also provides a means for the exercise of a spiteful or vengeful nature. All too frequently a neighbor's dog has been shot on the flimsy grounds afforded by the act although it must have been obvious to the killer that the stray was innocent. And the wording of the act permits the shooting of the dog even if the killer has no sheep at the time.

We are not forgetting that only a few days ago, Whitechurch paid out $400 in sheep claims, but we have also had recent word of dogs wantonly shot. It seems to us that the law could be a little more specific in defining the stray so that a farmer might still protect his flocks but the malicious shooting of neighbors' pets be prevented.

It would be appropriate too if the casual hunters who enter the farmers' fields, ostensibly to shoot ground hogs, were forced to keep their guns on that target instead of banging away at every object that moves. We fail to understand the compulsion which causes these half-baked ninnyrods to riddle a mail box or signpost. Such irresponsibles should have their guns impounded.

WHO PAYS FOR DAMAGE?

The gravel trucks carrying fill to the Barrie highway from pits to the east of Yonge are giving district roads quite a beating as well as scaring the bejabbers out of ordinary motorists. We followed a truck across the King sideroad last week. At one point the surface was badly broken and the road bed heaved and sagged with the weight of the truck like a back concession in the middle of the spring thaw. At other points the edge of the road was badly broken.

At Stouffville, the council asked provincial police to check the trucks for overloading and it was found that some of the trucks were carrying more than two and a half tons over the legal weight. But, says the Stouffville Tribune last week "it was hinted during the council discussion that some interference had been encountered in the case of some summonses."

We've no idea what is involved here beyond the newspaper report but it is quite evident that the roads are going to require extensive repairs and we wonder who is going to pay for them. The Whitechurch council is also wondering because last week they intended to send a delegation to the provincial department of highways to ask the same question.

Normally there would be no question. Presumably the assistance the municipalities receive from the province each year is supposed to cover all damage, but this is not normal usage and there is this matter of overloading. The Barrie highway is now being rushed to partial completion and apparently requires all the fill that can be had as quickly as possible. We don't see that the municipalities should foot the bill. In fact, we can't see why this work wasn't spread over the summer instead of being jammed into a few weeks.

Office Cat Reports Catnips By Ginger

Suffering from the after effects of a bad case of Neurosis Americana, your favorite correspondent returns this week from a trip to the Excited States.

Juke box jitters, enemy attack palsy, "something's up, they're workin' on more war contracts" hysteria and advertising shock treatment blues are among the many neuroses symptoms this writer experienced below border.

It was with ebbing strength that on our return, we fought our way through a jungle of beer advertising signs to the Rainbow bridgehead. Coughing up industrial sulphur fumes, we collapsed on Canadian soil, drank in pure air and felt that, at last, we had found civilization once again.

We were just a couple of Indians from Canada, babes in the woods when we started out, me and old Valenhead Bliggins, cousin of Slim Bliggins and retired racing driver. As members of the Alpha Phalfa Motor Club, we drove down in Valenhead's four cylinder Doodle Beetle to the American Grand Prix races, 200 miles south of the border.

But the races were incidental in our trip compared to the confusion of impressions of life in the Excited States, confusion being the foremost impression. We decided that we had only gone further away from finding the secret which makes Americana tick.

We may have come close to finding it in the juke box. We don't know. Out of six meals in restaurants and half a dozen stops for coffee, the same crooner croaked out a canned hit at the Americana public. They may be conditioned to it as to the ticking of a clock, but not us.

Frothing with the familiar Americana phobia about "the international situation", a plumb spoke to us over a coffee "Yep, I'm workin' seven days a week," he said. "And every body is workin' overtime over at the sulphur works. War contracts y'know. I tell you, somethin's up. Sure as shootin' somethin's up. War contracts y'know."

And at the entrance to a toll bridge we saw evidences of the same hysteria. A large sign, competing successfully with one for Smiltz Beer, at least 30 square feet in area, warned the following in large black letters, "In Case Of An Enemy Attack, This Bridge Will Be Closed To Traffic."

A man at the toll gate said, "Sure, we've got the biggest target in the state, the generator plant y'know." A man who always had a passion for the biggest and the best, he was proud that he could boast of the biggest target in the state.

"If you drink, don't drive," and visa versa is a famous slogan but the slogan on the highway is "Drink Smiltz Beer."

Forests of Smiltz and other beer signs enforce the idea that there is nothing else in the world. And on every cloverleaf there is a million colored warts beckoning you into the place where Smiltz and other beers may be purchased.

They say that the forestry and conservation branches in the government are getting worried about the statistics on trees and advertising signs. They say that signposts are increasing faster than trees. But one American is supposed to be inventing a billboard sign with roots and they will be able to do away with the old fashioned tree after a while.

by "Dairy Farmer" The Top Six Inches

We frankly confess that we like to go to sales - and we aren't the only ones since, rain or shine, there is always a good crowd on hand. They will jostle and freeze in the cold and they will spend a very long afternoon looking at things they don't want or don't dare to take home. They have the option on bidding on used double boilers and used barns, tractors or some implement that has been in the fence corner for the last 40 years.

The whole thing is very fascinating to us. We aren't very good at the game, because when we start bidding we never let go in time and we usually end up with a pile of junk.

What attracts people to sales? Some say it is a kind of meeting place for neighbors who haven't seen each other for a while. It is a great place for visiting. One should go to a neighbor's sale, because it is like paying one's respects.

Selling a farm and equipment, and especially the household stuff, is very much like a funeral. When the favorite rocking chair goes for a few pennies and the long used hammer or other tool, a little worse for wear, is knocked down as junk, a sad look crosses the owner's face. He knows that part of his life work and yes part of his life, is going under the hammer.

It is this tragedy which underlines these small sales that adds something to it too.

Then there is the bargain hunter. We always call the ladies the bargain hunters. The farm sale is the place where the shoe is on the other foot. The few women we see there come to buy a definite article, have a price set in their minds, and go ahead and bid. If you ever ran up against a determined lady bidder, you will know what we mean. She wants it and she gets it. But the men, they will hunt bargains. The old idea of getting something for nothing sure gets a workout at these sales. We are firmly convinced that some type of small farm tools are not going up in price in the stores because the price has to compete at whatever they can be bought at sales.

And it is getting to be that these sales are the only source of some small equipment for horse harness, double trees, neck yokes, etc. You can find some wonderful bargains in this line. Straps, and collars, old wrenches and wooden bowls. There might be a bit of frost in the air, and there is the pushing and the shoving of the crowds and the visiting with the neighbors and all in all, the farm sale is a wonderful place.

To us, however, it is something else as well. We think that a sale is probably the only really free market left. There are the goods on hand to be looked at and tried. There are the buyers, always enough of them, to make the bidding a true expression of the demand existing for a given piece of implement and for farm produce. There is also just enough of these things. Consequently, there is no artificial shortage to make the demand very strong. The bidders feel confident that something they didn't get today, they will get tomorrow. And so the sale is on.

It always amazes us how very exactly the real value of a piece of equipment is established at these sales. There is very little junk sold as real equipment. Obviously only few people want it. Other implements with some use left in them will find a buyer at a good price. And as the bidding goes along, the price usually gets to the level that can be expected. And this is true for grain and hay and straw, for tractors large and small.

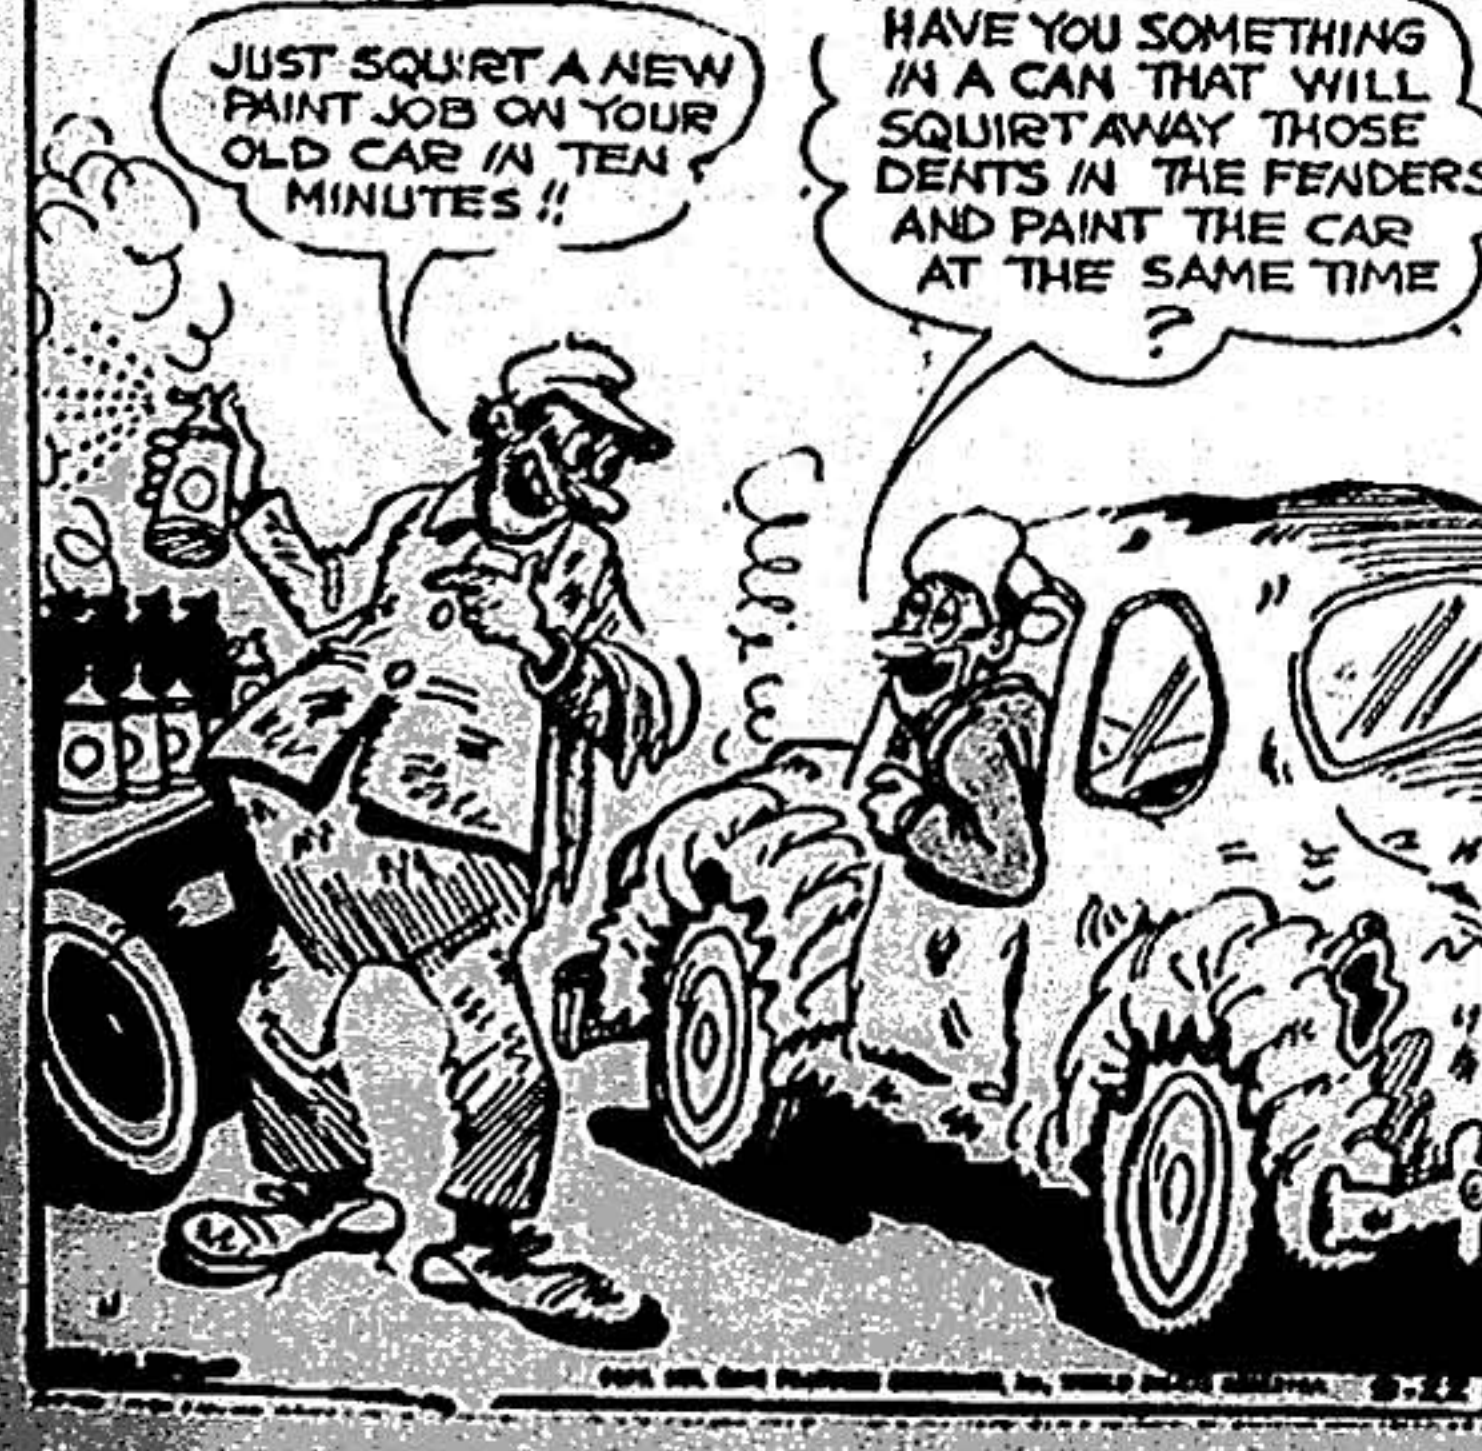

So we will keep going to these sales. We will not tell you what happens when we get home. When we unload three sets of double boilers with holes in them, two dozen sealers, with the tops not fitting and some muffin tins the kids use in the sand box.

Tely Story Puts Newmarket 'On The Map'

Our readers write

Letters to the editor are always welcome but the names of the writers must be known to the editor.

The Editor: About four months ago interest was revived in the Newmarket Humane Society and a very active Board of Directors was elected to try and institute a permanent set up for the Newmarket District.

The society has acquired a truck and an inspector on a part time basis. To demonstrate the need for this society and the important part they can play in any community I would like to point out that they are averaging at least ten calls per day in connection with animals. They have been operating a shelter near Aurora on a fee basis until such time as they could acquire land in the vicinity of Newmarket to erect their own shelter.

Being entirely a charitable organization they were finding land too expensive for their budget until one of Newmarket's oldest citizens, who is in sympathy with the work they are doing, came forward and offered them an acre of ground at a price they could afford to pay. The piece of property they were purchasing was designated as farm land and was not a part of any real estate sub-division. The nearest house to the property was approximately 1,200 feet distant and due to a park allowance, no house could be built in that area.

However a group of our very public spirited citizens who lived on the same road took exception to the Humane Society shelter even being on the same road even though the building that was to be erected was a much better building than half the houses on the road. Finding that legally they could not stop the erection of the Humane Society's shelter they resorted to the oldest and lowest means of getting their own way. They threatened the owner of the property and the Humane Society that if he allowed the sale to go through they would stop him from ever selling another lot in the sub-division he is trying to develop.

The attitude taken by this group of so called public spirited citizens is very reminiscent of the old Al Capone protection racket and anyone having any part of it should be ashamed to call themselves citizens of Canada.

These threats were made by this group of citizens knowing full well that the gentleman against whom they were made was in very poor health and that any excitement of a controversial nature was apt to have serious consequences upon his health. Knowing this also, the executive of the Humane Society went to the owner of the property and asked for their deposit back rather than cause him any trouble.

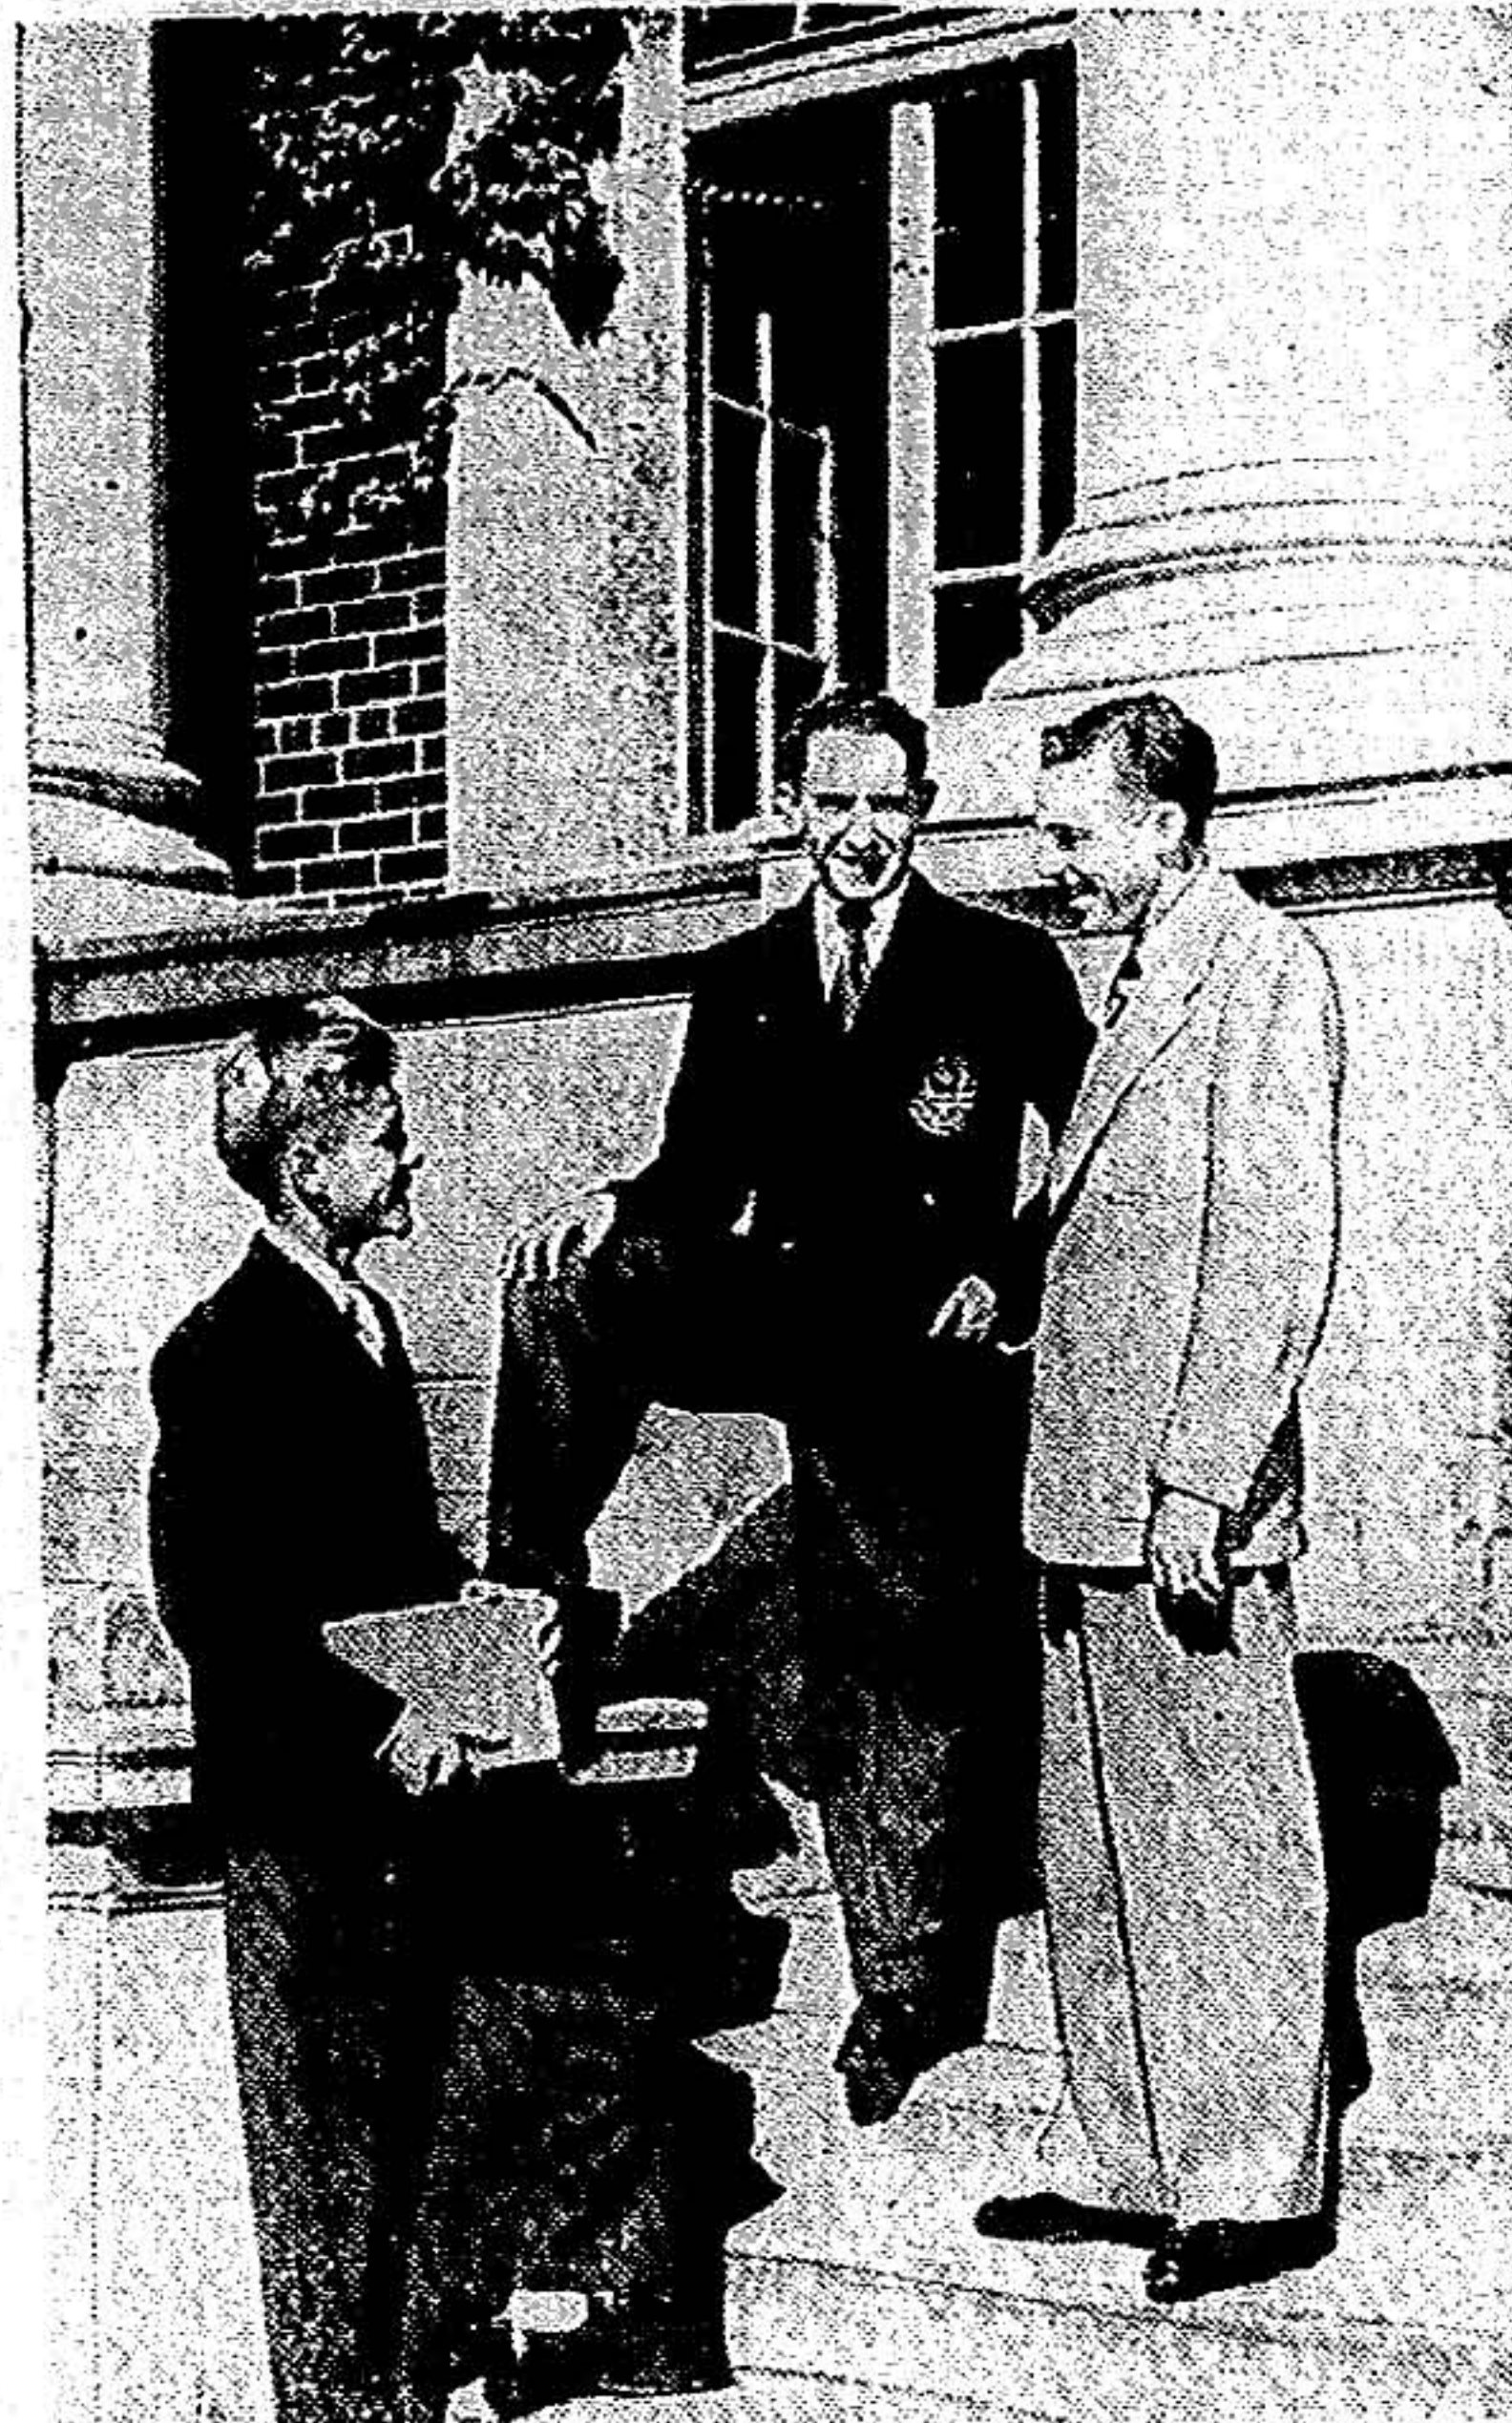

I am not a member of the Newmarket Humane Society although I have been a contributor and the attitude displayed by these so-called public spirited citizens against a group of people who have contributed so extensively of their own time and money to try and make Newmarket a better place to live in, makes me wonder what our country is coming to.

OAK RIDGES

Miss Anne Stephenson was soloist at the wedding of her cousin, James Clarry of Markham, who married Miss Lee Cotton of Orillia in St. John's Norway church, Toronto, on Friday evening, Sept. 14. Mr. C. L. Stephenson, his wife and family, were all guests.

The Toronto Telegram photographer claimed he couldn't find a sign with the word "Newmarket" on it which was suitable for his purpose so he lined the editor of the Era and Express, John Meyer, and a couple of school girls, Alma Park, 17, and Shirley Mills, 17, up under the Era and Express sign.

Mayor Vale told the Telegram that "Newmarket's a good town, no fooling about that."

representative of the Temperanceville circuit. She drove there with the minister, Rev. E. C. Moddle, who afterward called at Humber Memorial hospital, Weston, to see his son-in-law, Harold Dickin, who was in critical condition following an operation early Thursday morning of last week. At the moment of writing (Tues.) there is little change in Mr. Dickin's condition. He was taken ill on Sunday evening, Sept. 9, while attending Temperanceville church.

Ladies of Oak Ridges district will be honored on Monday evening, Sept. 24, when the Lions club will hold Ladies Night at Ridge Inn.

Oak Ridges News

It was "back to school" this week for eager Lake Wilcox children, happy to escape a prolonged vacation. In the Community Hall, grades 2 to 8 held classes on a staggered basis with about 55 grade 1's remaining at home until Monday, Oct. 1, when it is expected the new four-room school will be open for use.

Pupils are seated around "bingo tables". Two small blackboards, a loud speaker and a piano comprise most of the equipment. Compensation lies in the fact that the school section receives the government grant starting September 17. On the other hand, the children are thrilled to return to school life knowing that a brand new building awaits them. On Thursday of last week, 214 were registered at the hall. Thirty of these have never attended school.

On Mondays and Wednesdays grades 5, 6, 7 and 8, numbering around 80, occupy the hall under the principal, Mrs. Gladys Cross, and Ralph Findlanson. On Tuesdays and Thursdays these pupils are working at home on assignments prepared by the teachers. On Tuesdays and Thursdays over 100 of grades 2, 3 and 4 attend, filling out their home work on intervening days. Mrs. Chas. Crawford and Miss Beatrice Thistlethwaite teach these grades. On Friday of this week, all grades attend, the juniors in the morning and the seniors in the afternoon.

They are being shown movie films from the department of education based on the courses of study for each grade. The parents are welcome to accompany their children. The system is such that every day, Monday through Friday, is an official school day. The teachers however are very busy. On days they are not at the hall they write assignments for scores of children in addition to marking those that are already handed in to them. The students are so interested in getting started again they hardly "want to go home," one teacher said. Their text books will be on hand next week.

Organization of classes in the new school will be ready for the opening, the principal stated. As the enrolment now stands Miss Thistlethwaite will take grade 1, splitting the class to morning and afternoon. Mrs. Crawford will teach grades 2 and 3 on the same staggered basis. Mrs. Cross will take over 6, 7 and 8 and Mr. Findlanson grades 4 and 5. The boys' sports will be in the charge of Mr. Findlanson and Mrs. Crawford will supervise the girls' recreation.

The official opening of the school will be held some time this fall.

Mrs. Cross, who was a critic teacher for the Toronto Normal school at Hedford school, where she taught for the past two years, knows the value of visual education. With her colored movie camera, she has taken films of the progress of the new school in S.S. 13, even before the "long grass on the school site was cut. She filmed the turning of the first sod, and as in her former schools, will continue to film the activities of Lake Wilcox school. These she says become valuable records. Her husband, J. R. Cross, is a director of visual education with the provincial department of education.

Association's Name Intact
A proposal to change the name of Oak Ridges and Lake Wilcox Ratepayers Association to Lake Wilcox - Oak Ridges Community and Ratepayers Association was defeated by a margin of three votes at a meeting of the association last week. The proposal was an aftermath of the merging of the Ratepayers Association with the old Lake Wilcox Association recently completed.

Those in favor of the change contended that the functions of the merged body covers a broader scope of endeavor. When the vote was counted, James Wilcox, secretary-treasurer of the former Lake Wilcox Association and community hall trustee tendered his resignation. He was spokesman for the group in favor of altering the name.

A drive for expanded membership was favored by members. There are now 145 on the roll.

Mrs. Eva Warnock of Toronto spent three days with Mrs. Frank Wilkins last week. Other visitors during that weekend were Mrs. Wilkins' brother, Mr. Tom Blyth, and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Blyth, Toronto. On Tuesday of this week, Mrs. Wilkins attended sessions of the Toronto Centre Presbytery as

IN MEMORIAM

Selby—In ever loving memory of my dear husband, Wellington B. Selby, who passed away so suddenly September 20, 1940.

It's not the tears at the moment

That tell of a heart that is torn,
But the secret tears in the after years
And the sorrows that are silent
To him who could not say Good-bye,
Will always bring regrets,
But the heart that always loved him
Is the heart that will never forget.

Sadly missed and remembered always by his loving wife Edith.

Selby—In loving memory of our dear father, Wellington B. Selby, who passed away so suddenly September 20, 1940.

His life was earnest, his actions kind,
A gracious hand and an active Anxious to please, loath to offend,
A loving and faithful dad,
Never forgotten by his children,
Leonard, Dora and Albert.

Save On That Meat

A few years ago, when rationing was strictly in force, most Canadian housewives learned how to stretch meat. Today they can put those well-learned lessons to good use again.

Although meat is not rationed, every pound has to be stretched as far as possible because it is a costly item. One of the most important points in making the most of meat is to know how to buy it, that is to know the various cuts and grades of meat. Free meat charts which show retail cuts of pork, beef and lamb are available from the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Often the cuts of meat which are not so well-known and consequently not so in demand, are excellent buys. Every homemaker should start now to try to become acquainted with all cuts of meat, not just the few which she is accustomed to buying. Any cut, when properly prepared and served, may be flavorful and attractive.

Beef is the only meat that is sold by grade and the red and blue ribbon-like government grade marks are a guarantee of high quality. Today, there is a considerable quantity of C and D grade beef on the retail market as well. These grades are not marked with the ribbon-like brands.

If you buy beef which has neither the red nor the blue grade marks, then it is grade C or D quality. This applies in all centres in Canada except the areas of greater Vancouver where C and D quality beef is identified under provincial legislation with a stamp in brown coloring.

All of these grades of beef, if properly prepared, will give good eating satisfaction. The important thing is to recognize the cut and the quality which has been bought. Then, cook it properly.

If meat is cooked properly, not only will it taste better, but there will be more servings from the meat. Meat should never be cooked too quickly, regardless of the kind or cut. Quick cooking shrivels the meat and tends to cause shrinkage.

There are many types of meat extenders which when used will give more meat servings. Meat is difficult from many other foods in that it needs little added flavor. By combining it with other foods, however, it may be given added zest to say nothing of adding food value.

Perhaps, it may be stated that vegetables are one of the most common meat extenders. Such savory dishes as stews, boiled dinners, ragouts and meat pies might be made by adding almost any combination of vegetables to meat. If dumplings are added, additional servings will be gained.

Bread is another excellent stretcher for meat. Homemakers may often serve creamed meat on toast or sliced meat on bread with gravy. These hot sandwiches are a meal in themselves. When a bread stuffing is added to Swiss steak, round steak, lamb of veal or shoulder of breast, a very tasty and appetizing dish results; but most important of all, the meat with the addition of the stuffing, should serve at least two or three more people.

The addition of cereals to meat is another way to extend it. Oatmeal added to hamburger makes an interesting meat loaf. Rice served with stews and curries assists in stretching the meat budget.

Meat may also be combined with the pastes, that is noodles, spaghetti or macaroni. Spaghetti with meat balls is of course a favorite in many families. When served with diced liver and tomato sauce it is just as flavorful and colorful.

Pastry or biscuit mixes are invaluable meat extenders. When stews, meat and pies are so topped with biscuit or pastry crust, they are not only attractive but the number of servings they furnish is increased.

Yukon Eric And G String Spell End To Ozark Villain

Thursday's wrestling card at the Gaudens was the best yet. The attendance slipped off slightly from previous shows but it's a safe wager all attendees at Thursday's action-packed two-hour show will be back again. In the preliminary, Boston's Dan O'Connor and Oshawa's Bill Stack fought like a pair of tom-cats as they flung each other around and out of the ring on several occasions. Mr. O'Connor finally ran into a disqualification for trying to add his opponent's eye-balls to his collection.

The semi-final joust was even more hectic as gentleman Pat Flanagan from Erin-Isle and "Mr. American" Steve Stanilee rocked the squared circle from its metal moorings. Mr. America, who had an over-abundance of fuzz on the top, went right away about changing Pat's hair-do and in this respect "the gentleman from Erin" had little to lose. The pair spent a considerable part of their time climbing in and out of the ropes and got so accustomed to sloshing each other on the chops outside the ring that referee Dunn counted both men out.

That brought Yukon Eric, big-chested pride of the North, onto the square with that doer of dastardly deeds, Ski-Hi-Lee. Yukon, who doesn't move around the ring any faster than a slow freight going up the mountain-ladder, finally hit the Ozark laddie so hard with his expanded chest that all he had to do was fall on him for fall one.

Shortly thereafter, as the bout resumed Ozark Mountain Man levelled off with a drop-kick that did in the North Country strongman. The saw-off match was going sweetly when Lee whipped the G-string from off Eric's well-filled jeans and tried garotting him but idea back-fired as Eric reversed the procedure and hung Ski-Hi on the aforesaid string for bout winner.

Willow Beach, on Tuesday, Sept. 11. After the business session was over, Mrs. M. Sedore, convenor for citizenship and education, took charge of the meeting. The program was opened by all singing "O Canada," followed by a lovely solo by Morie Crittenden. Then Cynthia
Magee, Marlene Menar, Marie Crittenden, Jane Chapman and Reta Jacobs sang two numbers which were enjoyed by all. Mrs.
Mundy read an interesting article concerning our schools.
This was followed by a reading about education by Mrs. Ross Mainprize.

Mrs. Sedore took the topic in which she dealt so aptly with Canada's position among other nations. Current events were given by Mrs. Lloyd Kay. Mrs.
Horry Horner conducted a very interesting contest of which Mrs.
Anderson was the winner. The meeting closed with "God Save the King", after which a lovely lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs.
Huntley and Mrs. Anderson.
Mount Albert Institute is to be our guest at our next meeting.

Aurora branch reports a very successful Tag Day for the Navy League last Saturday and wish to take this opportunity to thank all those who contributed so generously and a special "Thank You" to the conveners and the school children who worked so hard to make it a success.
Don't forget the "mile of pennies" on Saturday, Sept. 22, in aid of the Women's Institute Rest Room. Members of the W.I. will be stationed in front of the Post Office from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. to receive donations from any who are interested in this project.

A. M. Clarke, convenor of agriculture and Canadian industries.
The Gormley branch will meet at the home of Mrs. Harry Smith on Wednesday, Sept. 26. The agriculture and Canadian industry convenor, Mrs. E. Smith, will be in charge of this meeting and the motto is: "Not a factory wheel can turn until the farm furrow is turned". Roll call:
"Name a raw material and an article manufactured from it".
There will be a plant and bulb sale and the hostesses are Mrs.
G. Boynton and Mrs. Kirstein.

The Mount Albert branch met on Thursday, Sept. 13, in the Community Hall. The president, Mrs. Donald Stiver, was in the chair.
Business was dealt with as follows: $10 voted to the Horticultural Society to help improve the pioneer cemetery here; plans made to attend the district project, "Aid to Effective Speaking", in Newmarket on October 9. Invitations to visit the Bel-haven and Queensville branches were accepted with pleasure.
Mrs. Stiver introduced Mrs.
Elton Armstrong who gave some fine suggestions on using power, speech and freedom to become good Institute members and good citizens.

The committee on citizenship and education, Mrs. Bruce Holling and Mrs. Murray Stokes, were in charge of the program.
Mrs. John Oliver Sr. sang a very enjoyable solo.

In introducing the guest speaker, Mr. Jack Smith M.P., Mrs.
Rolling mentioned we all feel we know Mr. Smith better through reading his column, Ottawa News Letter, in the Newmarket Era.

Mr. Smith described the life of an M.P. at Ottawa. Although parliament is in session from 3 p.m. until 11 p.m. an M.P. must be in his office at 9:30 a.m. and spend the morning reading and answering correspondence and attending committee meetings.
He told of the duties and procedure of the House of Commons and Senate telling how a bill is introduced, debated upon and finally passed or thrown out.
He stressed the appalling lack of interest in government, a fact that plays right into the hands of the enemies of democracy.

Following his address Mr.
Smith answered many questions and urged anyone to write him about any problem. Any letter having one signature will receive much more attention in Ottawa than one letter having many signatures. He invited all to visit the galleries and see parliament in action.

A hearty vote of thanks was given Mr. Smith by all present.
The meeting closed with the National Anthem following which a dainty lunch was served by the hostesses.

Lakeside branch will begin their fall meetings on their regular night, Tuesday, Sept. 25, at 8 p.m. in the Memorial Hall. The roll call is "An educational radio program" and the program is on citizenship and education.
Mrs. E. Agar and Mrs. R. Weller are hostesses. Let us have a good attendance of members as there are several important matters to be decided. All ladies are cordially invited.

At Laskay branch meeting at the home of Mrs. Archie McDonald on Tuesday, Sept. 11, Mrs.
L. J. Glass gave a graphic description of her trip to the west coast, a journey there and back of 7,765 miles. Everywhere she and her husband travelled there were new and wonderful sights.
"The mountains are beyond description, sometimes I liked them, sometimes I didn't," related Mrs.
Glass. "At times they would crowd in upon one with their massiveness, and other times their majesty was overpowering."
She marvelled at the sight of the Coulee Dam in the state of Idaho, twice as high as the Niagara Falls. In it is enough cement to make a walk three feet wide twice around the world, and it is still not fully completed.

Temperatures in Vancouver reached 101 degrees, but the weather there was pleasant with neither flies or mosquitoes to annoy one. Yellowstone Park and the Sulphur Springs were marvellous, while the acres of sunflowers in southern Manitoba were new to the traveller. They are grown for production of vegetable oil and are being tried out at Tisdale, a more northern point. Mr. and Mrs. Glass attended service in St. Stephen's United church, Winnipeg, where the noted Canadian author, Ralph Connor, had preached before his death and where his widow still attends. At Winnipeg they toured the parliament buildings and saw the exact spot where Princess Elizabeth will meet the province officials.

When asked if she would like to live in any of the western provinces, Mrs. Glass pointed out if she were younger she would probably make a change. "I am Ontario born so that would most likely be the deciding factor had I been inclined to leave these parts," she said.
The motto of the meeting was ably enlarged upon by Mrs. C.
A. Black, who told how courtesy prevents unhappiness. Her remarks were taken from the high school text book, "Behave Yourself", wherein plain facts are revealed on the quality of courtesy, so sadly lacking in the world, yet free to all, paying a threefold dividend on investment.

Conveners for the W.I. bazaar on November 10 were appointed, and final arrangements for the Institute dance Friday, Sept. 28, were made. Bazaar pair conveners are Miss Winnie Boys and Mrs. Chas. Hatley; Mrs. L. Boys and Mrs. R. Murdoch; Mrs. N.
Etheridge and Mrs. Norman
Egan; Mrs. Glass and Mrs. A.
McDonald; Mrs. C. A. Black and Mrs. G. B. Buddin.

The Roche's Point branch met on Thursday, Sept. 13, at the Memorial hall. Following the regular opening exercises, routine business was dealt with. It was decided to charter a bus to Peterborough, taking in the Lindsay Fair, for the W.I. members and friends on September 20.
The program followed with six grandmothers in charge. Lunch was served by Mrs. Mosser and Mrs. Chalmers. The meeting closed with the national anthem.

The Pine Orchard branch met at the home of Mrs. Mason on Wednesday, Sept. 12. There was a good attendance and the president, Mrs. W. Johnston, presided over the business session. Plans were made to visit the York County Home in October. The program was in the charge of the public relations committee. Roll call response was to give an interesting place you visited this summer. Mr.
John Meyer was guest speaker and gave some interesting suggestions for improvement in public relations and stressed the value of the York County Health Unit.
Lunch was served by the hostesses assisted by the committee in charge.

Note the change of home. The Snowball branch will meet next Wednesday, Sept. 26, at the home of Mrs. H. Morning. Roll call:
"Little things that make life beautiful." Current events, Mrs.
W. Williams; report of conven-ers' convention at Guelph by Mrs. H. A. White and Mrs. G.
Dewberry of Vandorf. Hostesses: Miss Joan Casoy, Miss H.
Webb, Mrs. E. Farren and Mrs.
B. Smith.

Newmarket Net Club Wins N. York Crown

Taximen Win 4-2 Over Town All-Stars

Triple Seven Cabmen proved Monday night they are no fly-by-night chumps. They downed an all-star nine from other five teams of the town league 4-2 in an ever so tight softball battle. Bill "Joint" McComb came up with a nifty three-hitter. "Joint" capped his solid pitching with a homer and triple.

His triple came after Harv. Gibney led off the second with a single. Joint cake-walked home on an outfield error on Jerry Hugo's belt to right. Hugo in turn striding home on Wayne Robinson's double. That gave the Cabmen a 3-0 edge and Joint McComb's round tripper in the fourth made it 4-0.

McComb had the all-stars double-whammed to the sixth. Then Mickey Smith lined out the first all-star hit to open the sixth and Bruce Andrews stepped aboard on Jerry Hugo's mis-cue at short, both scoring as the Taximen let go with a pair of wild heaves.

John Hisey singled to start the seventh away and Bill VanZant collected a double for the stars' other two hits.

Pop Holmes Presents Town League Trophies

Harry "Pop" Holmes in the early meetings to organize the town league promised a trophy for the batting king and the league's most valuable player.

"Pop" left our midst for the bright lights six weeks ago but came back Monday to fulfill his earlier promise. Monday evening, before the All-Star - Triple Seven clash it was Mr. Holmes' pleasant duty to present John Sheddlock, Office Specialty fire-baller, with the league's "most valuable" trophy and Mickey Smith the batting crown.

The selection of the most valuable player was made by team managers, while Mickey Smith gained the coveted trophy with a stupendous 630 batting mark. A. H. Topham, recently delegated to complete arrangements for the town league banquet, advises the date has been set for Oct. 5 at the Legion hall. All players on all six teams will be invited.

News Of NEWMARKET LEGION

The auction sale is over, the bingo game in the arena is over, and our Legion car is gone—but memories of last Saturday will remain with us indefinitely. The enormous number of articles on display, all given to us by local citizens to be auctioned—the motorists taking advantage of an opportunity to buy anti-freeze and motor oil less than the regular price—the cocktail shaker going for 25¢—pot cleaners that retail for 15¢ going for 12¢, immediately followed by a chef's table, costing approximately $400 when new, and auctioned off at $4.50—the cup and saucer for $1, because of the picture of the king and queen on it—the pleasant attitude of the many, many people who patronized our first Legion auction sale—the "glad I came" expression on the faces of the people who won hams, groceries, etc. at the bingo—the regrets expressed by Stan Smith when he drew the winning ticket, and found it to be out of our district. Our regrets at the unavoidable delay in having our car draw. All these things and more, are our memories of last Saturday's successful ventures.

We hear that the big Legion amateur show is slated for the town hall on Friday evening, Nov. 9, so this is advance notice to keep this date in mind.

Our general meeting takes place next Monday night. Several new issues to be discussed, and some new members to meet. Comrade President Gardiner tells us that this meeting will start promptly at 8 p.m., and requests all members to attend.

The Evening Telegram had its caricature artist, "Mac," in town last week, sketching some of our local Legion dignitaries, and the result will appear in the Telegram sometime after Sept. 17. They tell us that Comrade La Parde's facial reproduction is priceless.

Every member of the Legion should subscribe to the "Legionary." This is a monthly magazine of great interest to any veteran. Phone Comrade La Parde at 424 and he will give additional information in this regard.

By the way, the winner of our Legion Pontiac car was R. Boldt, 40 Blake St., Barrie, Ont.

Eramosa Ends 'Berg Hope Of Third Title

Two championships in one year is all Schomberg can afford this term. The ladies won the York-Simcoe title hands down. The men captured the Peel-York diadem. Of late, the Bergers, men's division, have been trying to lay a third crown by the heels, the O.R.S.A. intermediate A title.

Friday evening, their hopes were dashed by a 14-11 defeat at the hands of Eramosa, their third round opponents. Schomberg lost 10-2 in game one of the set and the double loss dropped them out of the contention.

However, the Bergers came up with a battling display before going out before the strong Eramosa crew. For seven frames Friday, Schomberg looked to be shoo-ins for a win. They lead 8-2, but their hopes were dashed as Eramosa came on with a four-run splash in the last of seventh and spilled over the winning runs in the eighth and ninth.

Ken. Ellison, tiring from a leg injury, couldn't check the ultimate winners. Doug Brown, with a pair of doubles, Pee-wee Aitchison, Doug. Marchant and Murray Edwards with extra base hits, provided the sunshine in the Schomberg camp. Manager Pike Cabell summed it up nicely: "They had a mighty sweet ball club and it was no disgrace to lose to them."

Schomberg: Doug. Marchant, Ken. Ellison, Walt. Thompson, Don. Marchant, Pee-wee Aitchison, Murray Edwards, Barney McCabe, Bill Breedon, Doug. Brown.

Haskett's

HASH

BY GEORGE HASKETT
Newmarket Sports Editor

Al Shewchuk, one of the most effective and popular players to pull on a skate boot here in years, is the Spitfires coach for this year.

Plans for a cracker-jack intermediate squad were being tossed before possibly the largest hockey meeting in years last Wednesday. Al reported this was his first crack at coaching and promised a battling squad. Outlook was brightened also by the report that Aurora wouldn't ice an intermediate or senior squad this term.

Geo. Byers was returned to the chair and a fine band of "back-uppers" were named to the executive posts. Someone asks if Sutton, Bradford, Allison and Beeton are still interested in forming a four-team O.H.A. grouping. Latest advice this observer has is that they are.

Let a player leave your ranks and you'll rue the day. That's what's happening right now in the ranks of the Bradford Celery Kings' lacrosse team. Harold Gwyn moved to play with Brooklin after being out with Celery slingers last year. Saturday night in the O.L.A. semi-finals, Gwyn paces his new mates with a three-goal attack as the Dodgers waylaid Bradford 16-5. Celery Kings are having goal-keeping troubles. Ted Bulpitt injured his hand recently and Bernie Murray, their substitute custodian, suffered an eye injury in pre-game warm-up Saturday. Bernie, who played with Newmarket when lacrosse had a brief fling here, stayed in working with only one optic in operation.

Our Optimists O.B.A. flag-bearers are starting to make tracks in the O.B.A. playdowns. Bantams ousted Grant Night-swander's Hill-Billies in two straight. They now await second round opposition Optimist pee-wees have a date tomorrow p.m. in Ajax and return match at fair grounds Saturday as they play into O.B.A. action.

Can't let this opportunity slip by without a word of praise to Don Warner, Jack Hamilton and fire-eating coach Frank Hollingsworth. The trio would welcome a large turn-out at the Saturday game.

What about senior ball next year? Little doubt Tri-County would welcome a Hub team. But to make an entry a reality should organize now. How about it, men? There's no excuse now there's a good diamond at the fair grounds.

Grant Nightswander, who has been bringing Hill teams here for years, jokingly remarked the other p.m. on looking fair grounds over: "Say, I'm sorry to see you fellows fix this diamond up. Now I can't go back to the Hill and say I know where there's a worse diamond than ours. It's at Newmarket."

How long can this go on? You impatient to see the lights go on? Takes time, folks. Any-hoo, you can bet the lights will go on next week. Further progress was made over the weekend as large number of volunteers toiled most of the week-end. Bob Walker and Wendell Gilbert, town hydro employees, completed wiring two standards. The electrical inspector will be here Thursday and Chairman VanZant and company hope to get the o.k. to throw 'em on next week.

Bantams Take Hill, Now In Second Round

Newmarket "Optimist" bantams drew Richmond Hill "Lions" as first round opposition, in the O.B.A. playdowns and proceeded to decimate the Lions in two straight. The series opener was an Optimist win 9-6 and in the return game at the Hill Friday, they plastered the Lions 18-5.

In the Wednesday tilt here, Optimists trailed 5-1 in the third and charged back harvesting at least one run in every frame to ease out a 9-6 triumph. Half-pint Jackie Mills pitched superb five-hit ball, running into only one spot of real trouble in the third as Hillers combined three of their hits with a walk and an error for four runs to build an early margin.

John McGuire turned the tide back in the Optimist favor with a long pinch-hit two-run scoring single in the fourth. Earl Lothian was "Mr. Big" at the Optimists' plate with four safeties and a perfect plate night. Paul Atkinson was Hill's number one boxer with two safeties. Second-sacker Normie Smart killed off Hill rally in the third with a back-handed stab of torrid grounder to provide the fielding gem.

At the Hill, Optimists unfurled an 18-hit attack to smother the Lions 18-5. Optimists counted five times in the first and were never headed, getting hit-happy again in the sixth to add the clincher with a second five-run uprising. Laurie VanZant, Charles McGuire, Donnie Thoms and Bill Mair headed the Optimists' hitters. Geo. Crean and Dave Hart paced the Hill with two per man.

Newmarket: N. Smart, W. Mair, E. Lothian, L. VanZant,

Mount Girls Win Title In Three Straight

Mount Albert ladies won their second Lake Simcoe Junior Ladies' Softball League title Tuesday, defeating Newmarket Pin-ups 6-3 in Mount to wrap up the series and championship in three straight.

Mount erased the margin in the second after two were on a walk, two infield errors and Marilyn Morrison's two-run scoring single. Pin-ups strode ahead again in the third on Joan Quinn's hit, but that was the end of the bright side of things.

Mount took the lead in the last of the third on Ida Bertolin's two-run single and Marilyn Morrison added the two clinching runs with a four-base belt in the fourth. Marguerite Green settled down to keep Newmarket off the score-sheet. The story was amply told in the error column; Mount had one, the Pin-ups committed five. Notable fielding efforts were turned in by Glenna Woodhouse, Marilyn Lee and Joan Quinn.

In the series opener, won by Mount 8-7, Newmarket made a fight of it to the last ditch, forcing the Mounties into a last of seventh two-run rally before saying "uncle." Ida Bertolin supplied the game winning runs with a single.

Friday, Mount left little doubt as to their superiority with a 11-5 win at the fair grounds. The Pin-ups experienced a bad case of butter-fingers as they committed seven errors.

League President Charlie Stevens presented the Taylor Beale trophy to the Mounties in the after-the-game ceremonies.

Mount Albert: M. Morrison, I. Simpson, S. Pickering, M. Green, L. Morrison, I. Bertolin, G. Harrison, R. Longhurst, E. Green, J. Ingram, M. Harrison, S. Gibney. Newmarket: B. Shropshire, G. Woodhouse, B. J. Watt, J. Quinn, M. Lee, J. Robinson, B. McArthur, I. Rogers, J. MacDonald, R. West, B. A. Watt.

Zephyr Wins Lake Crown With Three Wins Over P.O.

Zephyr "Blues" are champs again in the Lake Simcoe Softball loop. Monday evening the Blues pumped out an 8-3 win over Pine Orchard to wrap up the series and championship in three straight.

Pine Orchard hit hard and fast for a three-run first frame edge. Harry Brammer, Bill Dike and Howie Ash belted Ron Kester for singles and Ron obligingly tossed in stroller tickets to the Shropshire brothers, Bob and Lorne. Trailing 3-1 heading into the fifth, Zephyr rallied for seven runs. Clark Arnold pelted a three-on triple for the turning point in the game and Stan Lunn kicked in with a three-bagger in the big uprising.

Ron Kester didn't allow an Orchardman to make a call at the pay-off station. Pine Orchard gave it the good old college try before crying quits. They got a belated last of seventh rally simmering, populating the sacks. Blues smothering the budding uprising as Alan Lockie legged it over the foul-line in short left from his short-stop position to haul down Doug Hope's bid.

Clark Arnold, Johnnie Meyers and Stan Lunn got a pair of hits each for Zephyr. Harry Brammer, Bill Dike, Howie Ash and Doug Hope hit two each for Pine Orchard.

In the series opener a crushing 14-hit attack enabled Zephyr to deal a fatal 12-2 blow to Pine Orchard. Close to 1200 fans saw Ron Kester come up with a well centered seven hitter as Pine Orchard nibbled for a run in the second and fifth. Zephyr's power-hitting got going in the last four frames as the Blues cashed in with five extra base drives to run away with the decision.

Don Hewlett made a one in a million catch and whacked a triple and two singles. Clark Arnold was the other big gun with a homer and double in the heavy hitting display. Bill Dike and Howie Ash kept in character with two hits apiece for Pine Orchard.

Zephyr took command of the series before the home fans Friday with a 7-6 triumph. The Blues trailed 6-5 going into the last of the seventh. They fashioned their two winning runs around a walk dealt to Al Hawse, Bill Lockie's single and Ken Pickering's base cleaning double. Pine Orchard outslugged the Blues 15-11 but couldn't give out with runners on the base-ways. Clark Arnold hit a triple and double. Ken Pickering was the other two-hit man for the Blues. Ted Tidman capped his pitching job with three hits. Chick Shropshire and Harry Brammer stepped into Ron Kester's pitches for an equal quantity.

Monday evening, league president Ross Chapman presented the Stan Cook Jug to Zephyr with Blues ace pitcher, Ron Kester, accepting gratefully on behalf of his team-mates.

The Champs, Zephyr: K. Pickering, A. Lockie, C. Arnold, R. Kester, D. Hewlett, C. Meyers, A. Hawse, S. Lunn, B. Lockie, G. Rynard, coach C. Lunn.

Pine Orchard: H. Brammer, W. Dike, B. Shropshire, L. Shropshire, H. Ash, D. Hope, T. Tidman, S. Polard, B. Preston, J. Preston, A. Pegg, Manager Ab. Bank, coach M. Roberts.

Merchants One Up In Aurora Final

Andy Closs' Merchants hold a game edge in the best of five series for the Aurora Town League crown. Fourth game in the set goes tonight (Thursday) at 6:30 p.m. sharp at the park. The Clossmen took the lead in the series with a 7-4 win over Mick Sutton's Ditch Diggers last Thursday. Tuesday's game was halted after five frames due to darkness.

In Thursday's tilt, Andy Andrews, working the Merchants' pitch shift, all but single-handedly won his own game with a two-on homer in the fourth, as Merchants built up a 5-1 edge. The Merchants added two insurance runs in the sixth. The Diggers packed most of their hits into a three-run fifth frame as Bob Turan, Bill Hammond, Roy Allan and Earl MacDonald caught up with Jack Andrews' southpaw sendings for singles.

Mickey Sutton and Stan Romanvitch combined hits in the previous innings for the Diggers' other marker. Lefty Phillips, Don Homan, Jack Andrews, Ron Simmons and Dick Ferguson topped the Merchants' stick-work. Roy Allan was the only two-hit man in the Diggers' camp.

Ditch Diggers: H. Stephenson, T. Harrager, R. Allan, E. MacDonald, M. Sutton, S. Romanvitch, S. Sutton, B. Turan, W. Hammond.

Merchants: L. Phillips, D. Holman, A. Closs Jr., J. Andrews, R. Simmons, D. Knowles, H. Cluhine, J. Emmons, D. Ferguson.

HASHMAN AWARD

For A Nifty Catch

With "the best what am" softball teams still in the hunt and outstanding fielding, bat-ing and pitching marks coming a dime a dozen rate, your Hashman had to be particularly sharp to sort out this week's outstanding effort. Chappie we finally landed on is Don Hewlett, Zephyr's outstanding left-fielder.

Don came up with a one in a million catch in last week's game at Pine Orchard. A sinking liner was slapped his way and he took after it in a dive, rolled over and came up with the pill tightly grasped in his mitt. We wanted confirmation of our belief in this catch of the year and Joe Tunney, Simcoe umpire, concurred: "It was the outstanding catch of the year and best I've seen in a couple of seasons," he said.

That's why Don Hewlett gets the nod for the Hashman award and the Roxy Theatre pass.

Bowling League campaign were given the green light at the organization meeting at the Dixon Pencil Co. last week. Les McKnight was named president, Roy Gibson, vice-president, Ted Williamson, treasurer, and Ron (Joe) Calvert, secretary. Rules same as last year. The league plans to set aside a pair of evenings for their turkey roll, scores not to be counted in the regular league race. League will open regular play on Oct. 2 and 3. The 12 teams of last year will be back.

First returns from the Davis Leather League show some mid-season marks. Leo Forhan tops with a 677 (238-254-185), Len Burling 657 (197-250-210). Other 600's were Geo. Ingledew 606, and Barney Revell 600. It's a four-team circuit with Frank Bothwell, Ken Bennington, Andy Cullen and Ned Tansley captains. It was close in the first week's roll. Bennington nosing out Bothwell's team 4-3 and Tansley winning over Cullen by a similar margin. League officers are Gord. Tunney, president, Art Peppitt, sec-treas. Committee: Frank Bothwell and Geo. Ingledew.

Cedar Brae Gets Cup In Simcoe Jr. Loop

When peace and quiet had settled over the Lake Simcoe Junior's Men's Softball League Friday, Cedar Brae was hugging the league championship and the Rolling trophy. The crown came to Cedar Brae as easy as pie. All they had to do was put in an appearance Friday to get the diadem, Keswick again failing to field a team in their last chance to salvage a game in the best of five series.

Cedar Brae, season-long leaders in the group, picked up two of the finals via the default route and won a third quite handily 9-1.

Keswick coach Horace Brown summed up the situation this way: "Cedar Brae was by far the best team in the league; deserved to win and proved a fine bunch of lads and sportsmen. Three weeks' lay-off didn't do my side a bit of good and we regretted very much not being able to field a team in the play-offs." The two teams did get around to playing a hilarious exhibition tilt, Keswick triumphing 11-7. Horace Brown proved his pitching wing was still sharp as he bested Garry Revvie.

DOWN THE CENTRE BY AB HULSE

What's Brewing On Ice Lanes

Hockey on horizon: Joint McComb is at North Bay with the Chicago Blackhawks and St. Louis Flyers. McComb has fully recovered from the shoulder separation he received in late spring, and Dr. Bob Galloway, physician for Toronto Leafs, has persisted he prefers to stay at St. Leo. It's his sixth season there.

Reg Hamilton, well known figure in these parts when he was chief scout for Chicago Blackhawks and helped coach Aurora in the playoffs against Collingwood, has left the Hawks system and rejoined his first love, Toronto Leafs. Hamilton, who once piloted Galt Juniors and won fame a few years back when he took over Kansas City, then in the cellar, and brought them to an A.H.L. championship, will be coach of Marlboros junior team. It might mean a tie-up locally with Aurora in the not too distant future.

Hamilton has a fair club left from last season and from Brampton Regents he secured Jack Blount, one of the best defencemen in the district junior "B" group. Up from Weston Dukes for a trial will be goalie Don Head, about the best in local group, defenceman George Skoyan, Eric Tolton, forwards Stu Reid, Art White and others. All these lads have a good chance to stick. Leafs will again carry Weston as a farm.

Understand that overtures are being made to Moultrie Clayton, smooth skating forward of last year's Aurora junior "D" club, by both Oakville and Weston for "B" company. Clayton however will likely stay with Aurora this season. Quite a hassle between Staff Smythe of Marlies and Hap Enns of Barrie Flyers over whether or not the Flyers will play Sunday hockey at Maple Leaf Gardens. Enns has been down on the Gardens and Leafs for a good many years, so that despite all the hullabaloo there's a lot of feudin' and fussin' underneath.

Besides which, not playing Sunday hockey gives the Flyers a break by way of rests and often avoids two games in a row. Can't particularly blame Smythe for hollering since Sunday sports are allowed in Toronto, and actually the morals in Barrie aren't any purer than in Toronto.

Running a junior "A" club costs dough, and the Marlies have plenty of opposition most nights in Toronto by way of other attractions, and there's no doubt about it that the Flyers are the top drawing card of the circuit and the Barrie fans follow their team hotter than all the rest. The turnstiles at Church and Carleton would really click with the Flyers there on Sunday. Neither side is likely to back down at the moment. Thought Enns was through at Barrie after last winter? Howard Norris, former Aurora resident, again heads the Flyers executive, and you district fans who follow the Flyers can make reservations now.

Eddie Williams and Rex Bailey, both with Aurora Bears last winter, attended the New York Rangers school at Guelph recently. Williams really showed up well with the net result that Ed-die is headed for a trial with Quebec Citadels right now. Hope that means that Jim Wall, who handled the Bears financially and suffered more than some-what, may recoup a small bit of his loss on Williams. Williams has signed a form with Rangers.

Bonnie Scotland welcomed three lads from the district this week as Mac Clement, popular Richmond Hill athlete, Gordy Lewis, ace forward of Stouffville Clippers, and Bill Mabett, ex-Spitfires, journeyed by air to join Ayr Raiders of the Scottish league. It's a return trip for Mac, and the other two will hold up their end equally well. Bill Bradbury, Stouffville Clippers' Usbridge pick was recently married. Frankie Sullivan, ex-Richmond Hill junior, last year with the now defunct St. Mike's Monarchs of the Leafs farm system, will join Ottawa Senators this season.

Scotty Mair will go into retirement this winter and will doubtless find a place in the coaching plans of Conn Smythe. Hughie stands in high esteem around the Gardens. Fat Milne, who was a promising minor leaguer with Aurora and later played with Thorold Juniors, is taking a hotel management course now and has been at Banff all summer as part of his training. Nice work if you can get it!

Pot-Pourri: Chizen Kuhns was perturbed last week at the rash-sin' bouts at Newmarket. Seems the Aurora arena commission was scheduled to meet with the Newmarket arena commission on invitation of the latter group to try and settle once and for all the hockey picture in he 'Twin Towns' (The teen-agers to Aurora for junior, the older lads to Newmarket Spitfires), and also for a spot of entertainment, and a looksee at the ship-shape way Stan Smith has the Newmarket arena. The Aurora boys failed to show, and we understand they haven't met yet.

Doug Palmer, one-time rural hockey star with Schomberg-King-Maple, etc., won no less than 18 blue ribbons at the Toronto C.N.E. with his Belgian horses. Aurora Highlands finished 20th in a field of 25 four-somes at the Lambton club on Monday with a score of 334 for the four; 302 was the winning figure. The Aurora team was composed of George Thompson,

Al. Shewchuk Named Coach Of Spitfires

Spitfires held their organization meeting last Wednesday at the arena. The meeting brought out one of the largest attendances in years at a hockey get-together.

Al Shewchuk, one of the most effective blue-line operators in the Big Seven circuit last winter and possibly the most popular player to pull on Newmarket colors in years, was named playing coach.

Al, who gained a warm spot in affections of the local fandom last season, needs no introduction hereabouts and his choice should prove a popular one with the fans. Geo. Byers was returned as president of the club for a second term. Frank Johnston, another steadfast supporter, was named vice-president. Frank Courtney was re-elected secretary and Del Cooper was unanimous choice for Treasurer.

A six-man board of directors of Dick Rupke, Larry Ruthven, A. H. Topham, Dewey Kuhns, Leo Cull and Denno Bosworth, was set up. The team has already been entered in the O.H.A. intermediate "A" race.

A bright picture of this year's prospects was painted. Practically all of last year's Spits will be available for duty plus Ortie Thoms, Grant Firth and Don Gibson, up from junior ranks. Another heartening factor was mentioned. Aurora will not have a senior or intermediate entry this year and all players from Aurora and the south would be sought for a trial spin with the Spitfires.

The executive were empowered to name a manager in the near future.

Bill Cross, Frank Rice, and Frank Russell. Galt, Orangeville, Lakeview, Humber Valley, and Summerlea were all behind the Highlanders. Bill Cross, ex-club champion, had 80.

Looks as if two Aurora boys, Loring Doolittle with Kingsway of the Danforth league and Gerry Acheson of Makers of the Earlscourt sector will meet in the T.B.A. diamond finals. Both their clubs need only one more win to annex league championships. Eric Craddock of North Downs Farm has two fine prospects in Bonnyvale and Freedom's Girl. Both won last time out at Woodbine. John Stuart bought a promising juvenile called Bluster from E. P. Taylor and promptly recouped his outlay the first time the colt started in Taran colts.

Talking to our old friend Pat Flanagan at Newmarket the other night, we learned that Whippers Watson will likely take things easy for a while following his recent injury. Flanagan reminded us that actually he was The Whipper. That's right enough. In pre-war days, when both the present Watson and the present Flanagan were light-heavyweights, they were scheduled for England.

Flanagan was born "Wat-son". Watson's surname is "Potts". English promoters got the billings and posters mixed, with the result that Potts had to wrestle as Watson, and when he proved a good drawing card, and the present Flanagan was injured, the substitution had to be continued. "Whipper" came from the English "Whipper-Boy" or because of the style used. Potts wasn't colorful enough so the actual Watson didn't want that cognomen so he adopted the Irish strain, then coming in popularity and called himself "Flanagan". Both have legally adopted their present names.

Fat is 34, and a pretty swell fellow. Called Stan Stantee "nuts" and there wasn't any love lost between these two. Incidentally, "Mr. America" was pretty hoity-toity in the dressing room as he sought some perfumed spray. "That announcer said I was from Philadelphia. Tell the bums I come from Hollywood. Nuts on Philly. I'm a star like all the rest in Hollywood." Please take note, Mr. Smith. More fun and games and stuff by the grapplers come Thursday, Sept. 27.

Mayor Bell Informs Council If Hydro Building Altered Commissioners Will Resign

A general meeting of the town council was held on Monday night, Sept. 17, when there were present Mayor Bell, Reeve Cook, Deputy-reeve Murray, Councillors Corbett, Davies, Fielding, Gundy, Jones, Pringle. Also in attendance were town clerk K. G. Moses, ass't. town clerk, Mrs. Dickson, and town solicitor Lorne C. Lee.

Among the correspondence received was a strongly-worded letter from the Hart manufacturing company protesting the installation of the cut-up chicken plant on the adjoining much-discussed site near Cousins Dr., the letter asserting that council would be held responsible in the matter.

Several applications for the position of assistant town clerk were received and these were turned over for attention by the personnel committee.

A considerable number of tenders were received in connection with the high school area $800,000 debenture loan, the quotation of Messrs. Wood-Gundy, on behalf of the Imperial bank, being accepted at the price of $98.22 at interest of four and a quarter percent.

New Hydro Building

A highlight of the evening was the further discussion that took place on the new hydro building. This followed on from a special meeting of council held on September 13, when Dr. Rose, Mr. Baldwin and Mr. Copland attended as a delegation on behalf of the Aurora Hydro Commission.

At this special meeting a motion proposed by Councillor Gundy, and seconded by Councillor Pringle, was moved in the following terms: "That the Hydro Commission be granted a permit for the canopy on the hydro building which projects approximately four feet more or less past the street line at one point. That the Hydro Commission be asked to sign an agreement regarding the portion of the west wall of their building which projects past the street line eight and one-half inches more or less, this agreement to be approved by council and Hydro Commission jointly. That the resolution of council of August 20, 1951, regarding the hydro building be rescinded."

On that motion Councillor Corbett requested a recorded vote. Those in favor of the motion were Mayor Bell, Reeve Cook, Councillors Pringle and Gundy. Voting against the motion were Deputy-reeve Murray, Councillors Corbett, Jones, Davies and Fielding. Motion lost.

A further motion, moved by Councillor Gundy and seconded by Reeve Cook, was as follows: "That a permit be granted to the Hydro Commission for the canopy extending past the street line at one point approximately four feet on the new hydro building. Also that the portion of council's resolution of August 20, 1951, regarding the canopy be rescinded." This motion was carried, no recorded names taken.

Must Have It "Their Way"

Introducing the subject again, Mayor Bell informed council that the two hydro commissioners wanted the building left as it was until the end of the year, and if council refused this they would resign. He hoped that council could settle it and save an election for commissioners at this time. Mr. Baldwin had tendered his resignation but would stay if the hydro building was left as it was until the end of the year.

Deputy-reeve Murray said that for very selfish reasons the hydro commission wanted the building arranged their way. He was of the opinion that council should make a stand.

Councillor Davies: "They'll quit if you don't do what they want."

The mayor said the hydro admitted they had made a mistake.

Councillor Jones: "The hydro admits they made a mistake and asks council to accept their mistake."

Asked by Councillor Davies what the hydro setup really amounted to, the mayor replied that the hydro was purely an Aurora matter.

Councillor Davies invited Reeve Cook to say what he thought of the matter, to which the reeve answered that he would sanction the mistake.

On motion by Reeve Pringle, seconded by Reeve Cook, that the motion of August 20, 1951 (calling for the hydro commission to reconstruct the building to conform with building regulations) be rescinded, the following voted "Yes": Mayor Bell, Reeve Cook and Councillors Pringle, Fielding, Gundy. Those voting "No" were: Councillors Corbett, Jones, Davies and Deputy-reeve Murray.

(The motion carried on the above recorded vote means that the hydro building will remain as it is until after and possibly beyond the period of the next elections.)

Cup-Up Chicken Plant

A motion by Councillor Davies, seconded by Deputy-reeve Murray, favored permission being granted to the proposed new cut-up chicken plant, and this was carried after council had gone into a committee of the whole, under the chairmanship of Councillor Gundy, subject to letters of assurances concerning the plant being received from the health department and the town engineer.

Mayor Bell requested an early special meeting of council to deal particularly with the passing of the planning board's zoning by-law, which prompted the town solicitor, Lorne C. Lee, to interject the remark that council probably wouldn't pass the zoning by-law after it heard what he had to say.

"Don't start that," replied the mayor.

(A full review of the special council meeting held on September 13, and of the regular meeting reported above, will be presented to our readers in next week's issue of Aurora News Page. Ed.)

EDITORIALS

IT'S TIME FOR A CHANGE

Last year we supported an acclamation for Mayor Bell, not because we thought he had done a wonderful job. As the records show, we had frequently found good reasons for criticizing the mayor and council during 1950, and in the opinion of a good many people our criticisms inspired a desire to buy out the paper we wrote for at that time.

The paper was eventually bought out, but that fact did not succeed in silencing our comments. In the destiny of things we found a better and a happier medium through which to voice our opinions. That was a good thing for ourself and the people of Aurora, who can read accounts of and comments on council and other town affairs in the certain knowledge that nothing has been "trimmed" to suit certain interests.

We supported an acclamation last year for Mayor Bell for the reason that we thought he had tried to do a good job and should be given a second chance in office. We took the strongest exception to his stand in support of the planning board. But when that stand was reversed in the month of November we assumed that there would be an end of the planning board, which has been of no use whatever to this town.

We say here and now that an end should be made of any further expense to the taxpayers for the upkeep of the planning board, which has already involved the town in an outlay of several thousand dollars. The planning board was imposed on the town by men who later abandoned it. It is a small, pompous organization which derives from the provincial planning act of 1946. Its existence is unnecessary for a small town such as Aurora.

YEAR OF BLUNDERS

It is a certainty that if the present mayor were to continue in office the planning board would continue also, as an expense to the town. To terminate the present planning board setup, and reduce town expenses, is one good reason why Aurora must find another man to hold the office of mayor.

This year there has been a continued decline in the workings of the council. There has been what one councillor described as "too much yackety-yack." Hours have been whittled away on what another councillor described as "talking on nothing." This waste of time would not happen if council had a good chairman.

A good chairman would handle business efficiently and expeditiously. He would call the meeting to order as soon as it showed signs of drifting into useless talk. Considering the actual amount of achievement there is no reason why council should sit through four hours of talking at each session.

Mayor Bell doubtless does his best. But if we are to be truthful on what we think, we must say that he seems to us to fumble his way through the agenda instead of giving direction. This fumbling arises, no doubt, from his former lack of council experience. His is a clear indication that no man should be elected to the office of mayor unless he is familiar with council business.

This year has been one of frequent bad blunders, one of the worst of them is causing a great amount of trouble at this moment. We refer to the building permit granted to the Garfat company. The mayor is chairman of the building permits committee and the other member is councillor Davies.

OFFICE OF MAYOR

This committee granted a building permit to the company represented by Mr. Garfat and when protesting petitioners appeared before council they were told by the chairman of the committee which granted the permit that the fact that a building permit had been issued didn't mean anything!

Is it now to be taken for granted that when anyone obtains a building permit it doesn't mean anything? The whole thing is ridiculous. The one object of getting a building permit is in order to build. If it doesn't mean anything, then why get it?

At this date of writing we have no idea what will be done in the matter of the building permit granted to the company. But this we can say: Because of the ineptitude of the building permits committee, the Garfat company is being taken for a rough ride. And a very unnecessary rough ride at that.

Until every possibility has been explored, and no doubt remained, the building permit for the company ought not to have been issued. Then no one could have had any complaints.

The above is but one example of the fumbling and blundering that have this year turned council government into something resembling a farce. There is the land-use by-law, passed in March, 1950, which home-builders have been required to observe, and which the town solicitor is now being requested to "interpret."

We submit that under a business-like mayor such things could not have happened. Without good leadership there cannot be good government. Good leadership in council must originate from the head of the table.

We are not concerned with Mr. Bell as a private individual. Our concern is with his capacity in the office of mayor. We shall continue to show further reasons for the claim that "It's Time for a Change."

"BANG, BANG!"

Just Look Who's Talking! Blast From Aurora Editor Proves Only A Damp Squib

About the last source from which we would expect correction would be the Aurora Banner, which, since its change of editorship in March, has made so many mistakes in its own columns that the paper became a town joke.

This is the same paper whose new editor made the bumptious claim that he had won a trophy in the space of six short weeks, whereas it is plain common sense procedure, based on common sense, that such awards are judged over a period of twelve months.

As far as we are concerned, such trifles don't bother us, accepting them from the source whence they come. When, however, this smaller local periodical apparently begins a campaign of impugning our own veracity it is time to sit up and take notice, however repugnant such a necessity appears to us.

We are charged with having reported that a motion concerning the new hydro building was passed when in fact it was not so passed. To prove our concern for accurate reporting we refer our readers to last week's issue of Aurora News Page, where the circumstances were fully explained in the columns entitled "Council Sidelights" before the Banner was published.

Thus the Aurora Banner's intended heavy detonation turned out to be no more than a customary damp squib. We are not interested in damp Banner squibs.

Shape Of A "Frame-Up"

Gradually putting together what looks like the shape of a "frame-up," the Banner states that "some councillors have suggested that the true facts be emphasized for the benefit of Aurora citizens." It is suggested that these councillors have been "expressing concern over misinformation being given to citizens of Aurora."

The Banner charges that we informed our readers that the hawkers' and pedlars' by-law was passed when in fact it was not passed. The facts are that a hawkers' and pedlars' by-law was introduced and passed at a first reading on June 4, after it had been debated in council on March 19, and again on May 7.

It is true that since it was given a first reading on June 4 it was deferred on July 3 and again on July 16. At this date of writing nothing more has been done in the matter, which is a discredit not to us but to the council which has neglected it. We have taken the stand that our local tradesmen pay heavy taxes and should not be exposed

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

Aurora Lawn Bowling Skips Gain Two Tournament Wins In Very Friendly Contests

One of the best and most friendly lawn bowling "twilight" tournaments took place at Aurora on Tuesday, Sept. 11. clear night and no dew provided ideal bowling conditions. As for friendliness, it couldn't have been better. Our friends from the Newmarket club came in to the number of eight rinks, and other friends from Stouffville and Tottenham were present.

Among those present from Newmarket we had the privilege of welcoming President Frank Courtney and Mrs. Courtney, Mr. and Mrs. McCaffrey, Homer Blair, Mr. and Mrs. C. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Macnab, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Wainman, Kester Hugo, Vaughan Goring, Norm Hopper, Ken Bain, Del Gibney, T. Scott, J. Swindles, Mrs. Osborne. The rare-doubtable Andy Murdison, rarely absent from Aurora tournaments, was not present on this occasion.

We have commented in the past that, although our Aurora membership is not large, our bowlers are keen and many of them exceptionally skillful. Newmarket is, of course, famous for the excellence of its lawn bowlers. In this tournament contest there were also the Stouffville and Tottenham artists.

Win For Aurora.

Out of this contest of skill in this mixed trebles competition, an Aurora rink, skipped by Irwin Watt, and including Miss Grace Patterson and Dr. Madge, won the tournament. It will be generally agreed that this was a great triumph for the Aurora trio and we offer them our congratulations.

Praying Mantle Looks On

Vaughn Goring has been described as "one of the best leads in Canada." We wouldn't doubt the claim for one moment. We have watched Vaughan and have played against him. He soon gets the measure of any green. He has a splendid idea of weight and he takes his bowling so seriously that he gets down on one knee to deliver his bowls.

Now, any man who gets down

Coming to the Royal

Manager Clifford Griffiths of the Royal theatre has recently brought to Aurora pictures of outstanding quality that have filled the popular local movie-house and left queues waiting outside.

We have pleasure in drawing the attention of our readers to another of these outstanding movie events, scheduled for three days only, on Sept. 24, 25 and 26. It may well prove to be the highlight of movie presentation in Aurora so far this year.

We refer, of course, to the technicolor presentation entitled "The Great Caruso," which will revive as authentically as the screen can produce the vocal triumphs of the great Italian tenor, Enrico Caruso, born in 1874 and who died in 1921.

This will be a history-making movie presentation in Aurora, the home of so much musical talent. The running time of the picture will be 109 minutes, and a score of outstanding artists, headed by Mario Lanza and Ann Blyth, will lend their talents in the production of what has been described as "the greatest array of singing talent ever brought to the screen."

Two years of painstaking research preceded the production and filming of "The Great Caruso" by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Every essential detail in the life of the great singer has been carefully included in this technicolor story of his marvelous career.

As shown in the advertising columns of this issue of Aurora News Page, "The Great Caruso" will be presented at the Royal theatre for three days only, and our readers will note the dates, September 24, 25 and 26. Every effort should be made on these dates for early seating, as the demand is likely to be very great.

Mrs. R. L. Pritchard led the devotional period in the September meeting of Trinity United church W.A. Her interesting paper "Passages of the Bible we should know and why" was very ably given. One of the passages, the 12th chapter of Romans, was read by Mrs. H. M. Hooker.

Norman Hurrell, A.R.C.T., played two beautiful musical numbers. After the business discussion a social half hour was enjoyed.

In the absence of Mrs. M. B. Seldon Mrs. Elman Campbell chaired the meeting.

WEDDING ATTENDANTS

Struthers, Newmarket, matron of honor; Mrs. Charles Williams, King, and Miss Anne Lawrence, London, sister of the groom, bridesmaids. My, Won't Your Husband Be Surprised. To find you are saving money, I mean. Yes, believe it or not, it's still possible to put money in the bank despite today's soaring prices. I should know—because I'm doing just that myself. I've got a secret about it. On the contrary, I'm doing all I can to spread the good news around. The trick is to make your money go further than ever before and that means Personal Planning, the BANK OF MONTREAL'S new system of money management. It sure is a boon to budgets dizzied by high altitude prices! Whether prices going up or savings going down are your main worry, you'll be well advised to try Personal Planning. There's a breezy little booklet that tells you all about it. A copy is yours for the asking at your neighbourhood branch of the B of M.

Piping-Hot, buttered toast and lots of grape jelly... M-m-m! That's a favourite treat at our breakfast table. And now that those delicious purple grapes and other fall fruits are in such abundance, I've planned on "doing down" plenty of jelly with CERTO LIQUID PECTIN. I don't want to take any chances on my jelly not being "just right"—and by following the easy directions in the booklet under the label of every Certo bottle, I can be certain of tangy, true-fruit flavoured, perfectly set jellies and jams, every time. And with Certo, you know, you'll get up to 50% more jam or jelly from the same amount of fruit, as well as saving 2/3 the time of the former long-boil method.

Planning A Bridge Party? Ever noticed how good coffee makes good refreshments taste even better? That's why RED ROSE COFFEE is always a "must" on my bridge-party refreshment list. You'll know from the first sip that Red Rose Coffee is quality coffee! You can always, always count on its good taste. So when the bridge club meets at your house—or when guests drop in—do make sure it's Red Rose Coffee you serve! But don't serve it only on special occasions—make Red Rose Coffee a family habit too. And when you're buying Red Rose Coffee, ask for Red Rose Tea as well. It's every bit as flavour-wise as Red Rose Coffee!

Baking Is Wonderful Fun when you can approach it happy and carefree with no dark forebodings about the outcome! And that's how it is when you use CALUMET BAKING POWDER. Your dreams of featherlight cakes... tender, melting biscuits... fluffy, mouth-watering muffins... are sure to come true, every time, with Calumet. That marvellous double action feature raises the batter, first in the mixing bowl, then later in the oven. That's what puts the happy ending to all your baking. Calumet is a sure-as-can-be guarantee of the best baking results.

"Curiouser and Curiouser" is the way Alice described her adventures in Wonderland. And I say "curiouser and curiouser" if you haven't yet discovered the wonderful time saver you have in JELL-O JELLY POWDERS. Nothing could be easier to prepare than a Jell-O dessert, and nothing could bring more variety to your family table. Those seven easy, "lock-in" flavours give tangy, fruit fresh deliciousness to desserts and salads for any day of the week. Serve Jell-O often to your family and to your friends. Jell-O costs only about 2c a serving.

IT'S A Woman's World

By CAROLINE ION

The world of women moves at a fast pace at all times, but never more so than during September. This month of the hazy days is busy with so many activities for all homemakers.

In the summer months she had bouts of canning and jam-making during each of the fruit seasons. Strawberries, black currants and cherries all came in for their share of her attention. Young, tender beets were pickled and a smooth mustard sauce made for the crisp yellow beans. But it is during these September days that the really serious business of stocking the family larder against the long winter is accomplished.

Tomatoes await the canner or are grouped with onions, green peppers and the other necessary ingredients for chili sauce. The cucumbers, having been sorted by size, are fulfilling their destiny in nine-day, dill or bread and butter pickles. Even the large ones are not wasted, for they form the basis of a delicious hot dog relish.

There are plums, peaches and pears to can as well as fruit salad to make. Ours is one that combines peaches and pears, with canteloupe, citrus fruits and cherries... Oh, but it is good. You add the bananas before serving.

Yes, busy is the name for Mrs. Housewife's World these days. The regular activities continue and new ones come with the opening of school. Clubs and church groups resume their meetings after the summer holidays. Plans must be made for the bazaars and teas of late fall. Shopping trips for the family's clothes and sessions with the sewing machine and knitting needles fill those almost non-existing moments.

It is a satisfying time of the year, and unlike the preparations for a meal which can take considerable time, but which disappears in remarkably short time. The display of fruits in their sealers and pickles in their jars makes the extra hours of labor worthwhile. Later in the winter months when the assorted relishes add spice to meals and the fruit cellar offers variety to the menu, these hectic days of endless activity pay dividends.

As for the women's activities outside the home, September is the time for extra meetings. Plans have to be made for the coming year. It is difficult for the busy mother to rouse herself to take part in these affairs. All too frequently, by the time the children are off for the night, bed looks very inviting to her (especially if there is a basket of ironing or a mound of socks awaiting her darning needle). But she owes it to her community, as well as to herself, to take interest in organizations and affairs generally.

She certainly can't be a good mother if her horizon is bounded by the four walls of her house. Most women realize this as is evidenced by their belonging to various clubs and groups.

If their children are attending guides or clubs, they feel they should be active in the Mothers' Auxiliary. When their children are in public school, they realize that the bond between home and school, parent and teacher, can be strengthened through their participation in Home and School. Women's contributions to their churches are tremendous and as in all these groups, it is not the church alone which benefits.

As Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt said at a recent luncheon at the C.N.E., it is up to the women in the community to read, study and learn. Each day read newspapers intelligently, listen to the radio discriminately and be willing to work in community projects. Mrs. Roosevelt said that the cause of justice and peace in the world is promoted by women working and thinking daily in their community lives as well as by the work of the world organizations.

These activities which bring the busy homemaker out of her home into the community are as justified as are those in which she plans the feeding of her family. With the latter she adds nourishment to their bodies, but through the former she contributes zest to their living.

KING - LEW

A wedding of interest took place in Trinity United church, Toronto, when Florence Lev, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bak Hoo Lew, Vancouver, was united in marriage to Mr. Peter Lee King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee King, Toronto. Dr. Crossley Hunter officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride's parents and sister flew from Vancouver, her father to give her in marriage and her sister, Betty Lew, to be maid of honor.

The bride wore white brocade satin, with scalloped cap holding her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and red roses.

Maid of honor, Betty Lew, and two bridesmaids, Etta King, sister of the groom, and Margaret How, were dressed alike in white satin with net ballerina skirts and each carried a pastel feather fan decorated with gardenias and garnets. The groom's brother, George King, was best man.

The bride's mother received wearing blue lace over satin, with pink hat and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing plum tulle with lace and a winter white hat trimmed with sequins, and a plum colored veil, and a corsage of yellow roses.

Brother officers of the groom, who is a lieutenant in the Queen's York Rangers, C. Company, at Aurora, formed a guard of honor from the church.

Needlecraft News

SUMMERTIME, with its lovely sunny days brings forth radiant brides and the traditional, "Something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue." Shakespeare's words, "Hath not old customs made this life more sweet," apply aptly to weddings. Most brides adhere to the customs and traditions passed down to them by mothers and grandmothers.

These marriage customs have evolved from all generations and all parts of the world. For example, in Poland, the groom sprinkled the bride's bouquet with sugar to make sure she'd have a sweet disposition. The Ancient Egyptians believed that a bride who wore "unkind ankles" would have noisy and restless children. Some of these traditions may seem amusing to us today—but they were definitely a part of all the excitement that surrounded a wedding.

Today the modern bride finds part of excitement of planning for a wedding in selecting the wonderful household articles which will use in her own home. As every girl grows to womanhood she cherishes a very private, personal dream of the kind of home she would like to have. In her mind's eye she furnishes it over and over again—chooses the pattern of the chairs, the color of the walls, sees the glow of firelight, the gleam of silver, smells the fragrance of lilacs

50TH ANNIVERSARY

On Tuesday evening, Aug. 28, some 85 friends of Keswick, Toronto and Thornhill joined in a surprise party to honor Mr. and Mrs. John Harper on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. After their marriage they lived for a time in Toronto, then in Milliken, and in October, 1922, they moved to Keswick to operate the corner general store (now occupied by Burrows hardware) and post office.

Mr. Harper was Keswick postmaster for 25 years and since his retirement from that office, has returned to his old trade as carpenter. ## QUEENSVILLE

On Wednesday evening, a farewell party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Gibney for Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Weston. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Weston were presented with a lovely table. The best wishes of the community go with them as they leave for their new home at Brampton.

Mrs. Angus Smith is in York County hospital under observation. We hope she may soon be home.

We also wish a speedy recovery for Mr. Cliff Burkholder who is a patient in the Western hospital, Toronto.

On Thursday evening a social evening was held at the home of Mrs. J. L. Smith for the members of the choir in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. Weston, and also Miss Mary Arkinstall. Mary leaves shortly for Queen's University.

On Sunday, Sept. 23, Sunday school will be held from 9.45 a.m. to 10.30 a.m. in the United church. There will be no church service because of the anniversary services at Hope. The Queensville Junior choir, under the direction of Mrs. J. L. Smith, will be supplying the music at Hope Sunday morning.

Rally Day will be observed in the Sunday school on Sunday, Sept. 30.

Mrs. Ray Glass is supplying at Union St. school during the absence of Mrs. A. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Smith spent the weekend at Mountain Lake, Haliburton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dixon of Newmarket spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Clark.

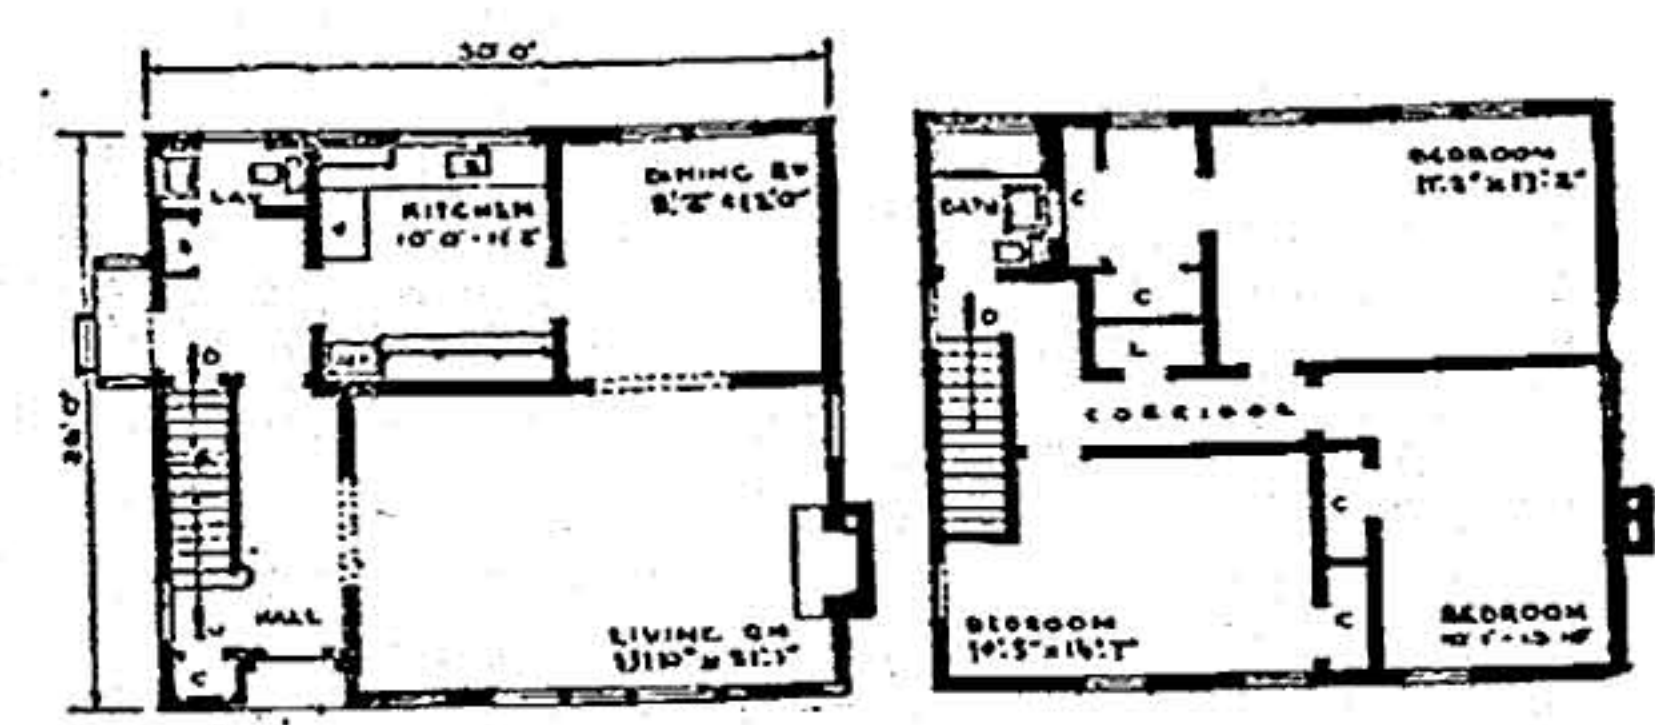

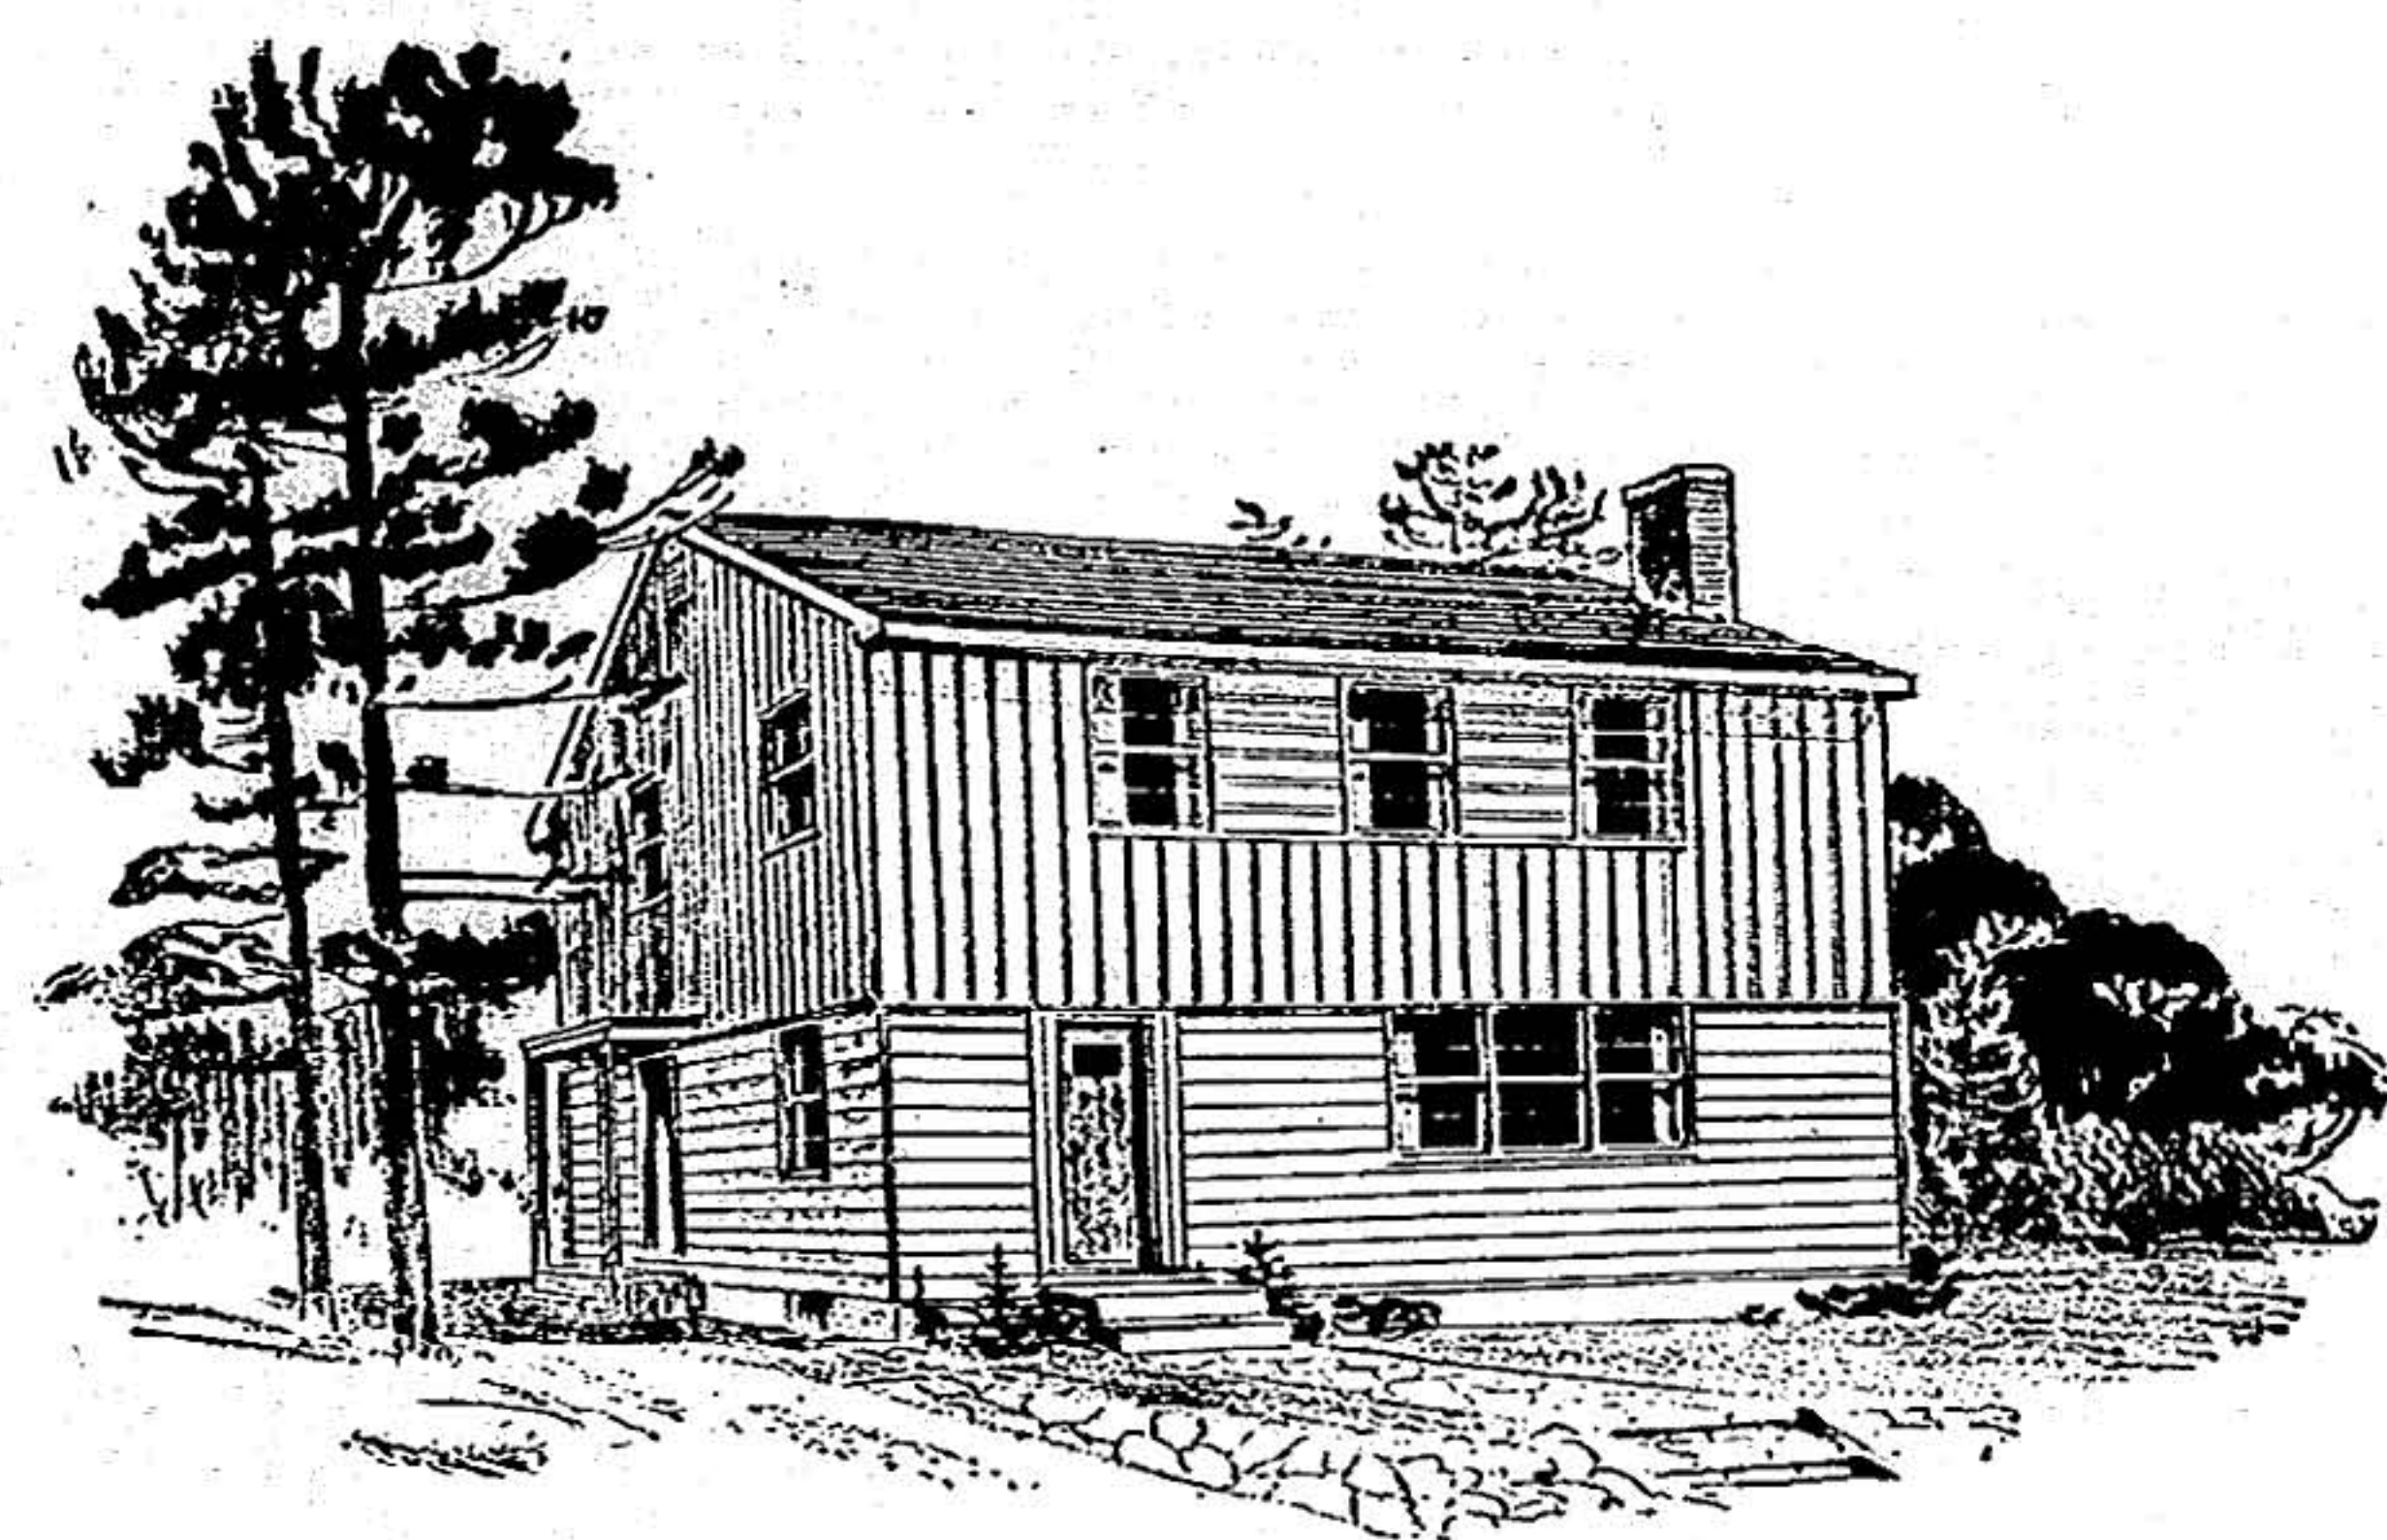

A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend the films to be shown by the National Film Board on Thursday night, Sept. 27, at 8.30 p.m., in Hillside school. This showing promises to be very good. All are welcome.

On Friday evening a meeting of the Queensville Athletic Society was held in the school. A very successful financial report of Sports Day and of the year was given. It was decided to turn over enough money to the Park Board to entirely lift the debt on the rink. There are still many improvements to be made in the park. There is still plenty left to do as a community project for another Sports Day.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: past pres., Mr. Fred Dew; pres., Mr. Murray Huntley; vice pres., Mr. Lorne Smith; sec. treas., Rev. E. V. Warren; ass't sec. treas., Mrs. R. Chapman; advertising, Mrs. J. L. Smith; gate, Mr. Frank Graham.

Contrast In Line

Plan 50-78: The pleasing combination of horizontal and vertical wood siding gives a truly distinctive appearance to this six-room house. The layout of the kitchen, dining-room and living-room is pleasing and convenient. Four large closets and a linen room are the feature of the second storey which has been planned for three large bedrooms. In addition, a dressing room is provided for the master bedroom. For estimating purposes, the total area of the house is 1,560 square feet and the cubic contents 22,512 cubic feet. (Working drawings of this plan may be obtained from Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, 56 Lyon St., Ottawa, at minimum cost.)

LOOK WHO'S TALKING!

Of course he may have other ideas. Circulation, perhaps? Jack Benny built up a huge listening audience as the outcome of his simulated attacks on Fred Allen. It could be that the Lt. Colonel (as he was described to readers in an introductory note in the Richmond Hill Liberal on September 15, 1949) has a yen for Jack Benny's "go-getter" methods.

In the meantime, however, we suggest that he has enough to do to look after the paper he edits without setting out to improve somebody else's. When he has put his own house in order he could then, perhaps, turn to the more solemn business of crusader.

We have studied HIS reports of council and they leave much to be desired. His report on the hydro debate on August 20 was a remarkable instance of not what went in, but what was left out. What is left out is sometimes of more importance than what goes in; and such omissions the editor of the Banner appears carefully to study.

We have answered his charges alleging "misinformation." Let the Banner editor now answer charges we made against him of taking editorials from other sources without acknowledgment and palming them off on his readers as his own. Let him answer for his own misrepresentations.

A mandrill is a large baboon with a light blue nose, orange and yellow beard and a forehead crest of greenish hair.

REMEMBER
York County Hospital
IN YOUR WILL

Rabbits on some western farms are leading frustrated lives these days. The succulent bark of their favorite fruit trees has been wrapped in aluminum foil, so now they can't get at it.

This was a new one on us. We had heard of dozens of uses for the foil we roll at Kingston, Ont., but never for frustrating rabbits. However, it just goes to illustrate why more people are using more aluminum and why we, as the most efficient producer of this modern metal, must go on expanding. Aluminum Company of Canada, Ltd. (Alcan).

What They Are Saying

on his knees means business. We have read that in olden times it was the general custom for a man to propose to a woman on his knees. Vaughan Goring proposes to his bowls on his knee, and generally gets what he wants.

It may be that the Newmarket lawn bowling coach is in favor of the practice of getting down on one knee when the players propose where their bowls should go. For we noticed that Kester Hugo, who also was skipping a rink, got down on one knee. Kester was often getting what he proposed in his recumbent posture, and we are wondering if we shouldn't practise the same system.

And here is a true story. On a seat nearby was a beautiful praying mantis, which had been rescued from its perilous situation among the bowls by Mrs. Macnab. We watched the play from this seat, and so did the praying mantis. The thought occurred to us that it probably was a mascot brought from Newmarket to Aurora either by Vaughan or Kester. It is still sitting on the seat, in a prayerful attitude, near the rink where Vaughan was skipping, when he left.

Later we heard that his rink had won third place in the tournament for two high wins. With Vaughan on one knee delivering his bowls, and a praying mantis looking on at his play, there is little wonder that he secured a victory in the contest.

Other Wins

Besides the winning of the mixed trebles tournament by Irwin Watts, Mrs. Pattenden and Mrs. Copland had three wins at the ladies doubles at Tottenham last week, placing Aurora in second position.

Then Harry Corner took a rink to Agincourt last week where they secured two wins in the tournament played there. Only last week we mentioned that Mr. Corner was back to his customary bowling form, following his vacation.

And now we put these notes aside to allow us to perform a duty this Saturday afternoon. And what is that duty? Why, bowling, of course. We are going to join our son in a men's doubles tournament on the Aurora greens. We do not bowl too well, but we shall have some fun. We hope we may have with us a praying mantis.

Aurora Wins Again

The result of the men's doubles lawn bowling tournament on Saturday, September 15, was three more wins for Aurora. George Pattenden and Charles Copland won the tournament; Charles Fry and William Matheson were second; and as the result of excellent play by our son, Russell, we came in for third place.

We had the great pleasure of playing against those masters of the bowling science, Art Eden and Dr. Young of Richmond Hill, and Andy Murdison and Vaughan Goring from Newmarket. Others from Newmarket included Frank Doyle, Homer Blair, Kester Hugo and Ken Bain.

The final between skippers Pattenden and Eden was a masterly exhibition, an extra end having to be played to decide the outcome. Both skips were assisted by brilliant bowling on the part of Charles Copland and Dr. Young.

In the end the Aurora rink won through. Our congratulations to George Pattenden and Charles Copland. The foregoing results will prove our claim that the Aurora club contains some excellent exponents of the ancient game of lawn bowling.

King City And District

CORR., MRS. L. E. ROLLING, PHONE KING 8

Mr. James Morrison is hard at work building his home before winter sets in. Using 40-year-old seasoned lumber, he plans a substantial dwelling of four rooms for himself and his wife. The basement walls are up and Mr. Morrison, a veteran cabinet maker of "many summers", has most of the nails drawn from lumber he brought here from Toronto and which was in a house he built for himself 40 years ago in what is now Toronto's Moore Park district. Of sturdy pine, it took 12 heavy transport trips to convey the material to King. He had torn down the city dwelling earlier. Mr. Morrison intends to have asphalt siding and will require help to finish the house later this fall. He is counting on a recreation basement and all modern equipment in the dwelling. He and his wife make their home with their son Frank, a farmer on the 4th con., while the building is being constructed. It was started last year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Arwood Cairns are on a three-week's trip to Banff, where Mr. Gordon attended the automotive convention. They started for home last weekend and will arrive in another week or so. They expected to be away for three weeks. Miss Thelma Gordon, nurse-in-training at St. Joseph's hospital, Toronto, was home for the weekend. She entered the course early in September and is enjoying her vacation very much.

Sorry, Mr. Composer. It was "Mocking Bird Hill," a song-hill recognized by Mrs. Duncan Thompson on a recent radio program which won her $100. Last week we erred in giving the name to the song.

Mrs. Len Robb was presented with two cups and saucers by those who had taken Langdon bus to the Exhibition. Mrs. Robb had made all arrangements for Women's Institute members and others, who gave the gift in appreciation of her endeavors. The tokens were presented by Mrs. Aubrey Campbell.

Miss Margaret Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lewis, Toronto, friends of Mr. Douglas Scott, were entertained to Sunday evening dinner. The Lewis couple were married in February, 1950, on such a stormy day that Douglas, the groomsmen, was unable to reach the scene in time for the ceremony. After hours of struggling through blocked roads he arrived in time for the reception. He had the wedding ring in his pocket.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cliff spent a day at Niagara Falls last week.

Moving to Nova Scotia

Mrs. Morris McKinnon, Toronto, visited her mother, Mrs. Arthur Wellesley, on Sunday before moving to Maccan, Nova Scotia, with her husband and young daughter, Susan. Morris' parents live there.

A wedding of interest will take place on Oct. 6 at St. Timothy's Anglican church, Toronto, when Donald Burns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burns, will marry Miss Jean Brownlee of Toronto.

Mr. Norman D. McMurchy and sister, Mrs. Ab. Hill of Nobleton, and Mrs. T. L. Williams were among those to attend the at home given by Mr. and Mrs. Archie Brownlee of Nashville in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Brownlee is a sister of the late Mrs. Alex McMurchy.

Mrs. Williams was present at the silver wedding anniversary reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Badger, Lansing. Mr. Badger is a cousin of Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. Williams leaves this Friday for Uxbridge where she will spend a week or so with friends there and will attend the 112th anniversary of Quaker Hill Presbyterian church, this coming Sunday.

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Allan of Lefroy, parents of Mrs. Matt Bell, were 50 years married on Tuesday, Sept. 18. With Mrs. Scott, a sister of Mrs. Allan, and her husband, the happy couple are spending the day in celebration at Niagara Falls. Mrs. Allan

Purchases Victorious Terrier

An Irish terrier, "Shamrock Cuckoo," winner of the best of breed at the Dixie International All-Breed Dog Show, held at Dixie last Saturday, was purchased by Miss Carol Brown of King, following her victory as the superior female of her breed. Of imported parents, she was bred in Winnipeg by H. L. Dargie and brought from the west by Gordon Cunningham of Hamilton. Linda Lee L'Shaunecy, also owned by Carol Brown, won second prize in the Irish terrier open class and the reserve winner's ribbon at the Dixie show, which had a large entry of American dogs. Premiums and trophies were in good quality.

Handcrafters Plan Future Work

With the re-assembling of Kingcrafts Guild, work groups are planning future work. The ruggers began regular work meetings last Monday at the home of Mrs. J. L. Grew. The leather workers met at the home of Mrs. W. F. Poag, the convener, on Tuesday to organize a program of work. They intend to send Miss Helen Hunter, Miss Jessie Gollaty, Miss Ella Whitmore, Mrs. W. Poag and Mrs. Ivan Specht to Aurora for instruction in the craft beginning in October. Each of these will in turn give instruction and help to the local leather class. Mrs. Poag is anxious that anyone interested in learning leathercraft contact or telephone her at King 83m. We have not heard from the weavers but presume they are lining up for work. The smoking group is meeting this week.

Short Course Open To Public

A short course arranged as an evening's Food Forum will be sponsored by King Women's Institute on Monday, Sept. 24, at King United church at 8 p.m., open to ladies and gentlemen of the community. There will be pictures and discussions conducted by Miss Marion Wight, home economist with the W.I. As the local organization has guaranteed an attendance of at least 50 persons, it is hoped all and more than that number will respond. Cookies and tea will be served by King members. The course is free.

First Reunion in 22 Years

Mr. Frank Gambrell was reunited with his sister, Mrs. Gordon Hugins of Warren, Ohio, for the first time in 22 years when she recently motored to King with her husband, her son and his wife. There was no one at home when they arrived at the Gambrell residence and they located Mr. Gambrell on his mail route on the 3rd concession. When they drove along side his car, he failed to recognize his sister, and she was almost as puzzled as to his identity. The visitors stayed a couple of days. Mrs. Hugins' has lived in the States for 30 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fraser are parents of a son, born at Private Patients Pavilion, Toronto General hospital, September 5. Their other child is a wee girl. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hall are holidaying at East Orange, New Jersey, guests of their aunt, Mrs. Ethel Edge, sister of the late Mr. V. A. Hall.

Mr. R. T. Rule, a new resident of King, is on the staff of the King Bank of Commerce. Mr. Rule has eight years' experience in the Royal Bank of Canada.

Robbie Tetley was host to a number of young friends on his fifth birthday, Sept. 11, from four to six in the afternoon. His aunt, Miss Elizabeth Begg, was one of the adult guests as was his grandmother, Mrs. J. Begg of Toronto. Miss Begg flew to New York last Thursday for a year at Columbia University where she will take her Bachelor of Nursing degree.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hunter have returned from a tour in Quebec Province which took them to St. Anne de Bellevue at Canada House, overlooking the St. Lawrence. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hamby at St. John who have bought a new home there. They had intended visiting Riviere de Loup but heavy rainfall enroute turned the tourists homeward. Part of their time was spent at Ottawa, guests of Lieut. Lawrence Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Glass and family, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Parker and son of Richmond Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Hunter, picked at Greenwood Park near Markham, on Sunday.

Mrs. Dorothy Tibbett of Bracebridge spent a recent weekend with her niece, Mrs. D. Glass.

Visit at Yorkton, Sask.

Dr. Campbell McKay and his wife have returned from a recent motor trip to Yorkton, Sask., where they spent a week with former air force friends. Traveling via the U.S. in both directions they travelled 3,000 miles. Dr. McKay saw some of his former college classmates in Manitoba and Saskatchewan. He is a veterinarian with Maple Cattle Breeders and at Duluth saw the breeding station for Jersey and Swiss Brown cattle. Comparatively speaking, Dr. McKay was not much impressed with the organization there. It is not as well carried out nor is it as large as the Maple station. The McKay's liked the beautiful scenery of Wisconsin and Minnesota. Their two children remained with an aunt on a Thornbury farm during their holiday absence.

Mrs. Ada Cameron and son Russell were guests at the wedding of her nephew, Roy Ireland, and Dorothy Foster of Aurora, married in Aurora United church last Saturday. Mrs. R. Murdoch of Strange, an aunt of the groom, was a guest. Mrs. Cameron will visit Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Ferguson of Acton this coming weekend. They too were present at the wedding.

Honor Bride-to-be

Pre-nuptial honors for Miss Marjorie Mary Olive Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Johnston, "Sylvancrest", 7th line, constitute many interesting social functions. She will be married to Gordon Lang Cheesbrough, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Cheesbrough of West Mount, Montreal in a ceremony at Timothy Eaton Memorial church, Toronto, on Saturday, Sept. 29. Miss Johnston graduated in arts at the University of Toronto this summer. The groom elect graduated from McGill University, Montreal, in science and is Master of Commerce from University of Toronto.

At the Rosedale Golf Club, Toronto, Mrs. L. B. Black, an aunt of Miss Johnston entertained at a luncheon on Tuesday, Sept. 11. On the following Thursday, Mrs. Roy Sparling, Coldstream Ave., Toronto, entertained 20 guests at her home at a miscellaneous shower. On Tuesday of this week, Mrs. Jane Murray Wright, Lytton Blvd., Toronto, held a kitchen shower for the coming bride. Mrs. Wright will be one of her bridesmaids. Miss Annie Murray gave a luncheon at the B and R Club on Wednesday, Sept. 19 while Miss M. Martin, of Spadina Rd., Toronto, held a bathroom shower for Miss Johnston, whose bridesmaid she will be.

On Thursday evening, Sept. 20, Mrs. Andrew Clark, Douglas Dr., is giving a cup and saucer shower for this popular bride of the month. Further honors are being arranged for most of the remaining period before the wedding. The reception following the ceremony will be held at "Sylvancrest", King Township.

Dancing On The Green Revived

Nearly 500 attended the King Township Credit Union fun night last Wednesday evening in a natural park on the property of Mr. Herbert Parker, Community Sideroad. Dancing on the green, a traditional old country custom, was held to the music of "Jerry" of Toronto and Billie O'Reilly, supplemented by records. Joe Ball called off for the square dances and modern dancing completed the dance fest. It was a perfect moonlight night and with the help of car lights the romantic setting delighted everyone, several attending from Aurora, Newmarket and Toronto. Earlier in the evening races with prizes were held for the children. The climax came when a huge bonfire caught up the spirit of the songs, a treat of boiled corn, red hots and hot coffee. Joe Scott, president of the organization and all the directors were present. Chairman of the committees was Bob O'Reilly. In the ladies' section were Mrs. Mary Crook, Mrs. J. C. Best, Mrs. Joe Ball, Mrs. Ray Crohan, Mrs. Matt Noel, Joan McCormick, Dorothy Adamson, Mrs. Herb Parker and Miss Marie Deane. There were suggestions to make the event an annual affair.

King W.I. With the anniversary of the founding of King W.I. near at hand, accomplishments of the branch during the past year were briefly outlined by the president, Mrs. A. E. Jarvis, at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Austin Rumble, Sept. 11. Emphasis was placed on the co-operation extended by members of the branch in the many undertakings requiring careful planning, skilful execution and a willingness to share responsibilities.

"I could not express appreciation to nicer people," the president stated. Indeed, the whole community responds, she said, mentioning that $25 has been raised by the branch in eight months' time. Among the activities carried out are donations of $25 each to the local Bible vacation school, and transportation to Thornhill swimming tank where children took swimming instruction; a contribution to the dental clinic; $130 raised for York County hospital; efforts of the W.I. in conducting the T.H. survey test, and promotion of interest in plans for a proposed community hall at King; the York County Home project, and other achievements.

"We must continue to keep our nose to the grindstone, with definite objectives in view," the president pointed out, as several ways and means of raising funds were discussed. The rummage sale will be repeated early in the new year. A "china pig", which is a member-to-member scheme of raising money in an amusing manner, was approved. Mrs. Ivan Specht will start the pig on its journey.

Reporting on the Institute project at the York County Home, Mrs. Williams gave estimated costs of purchasing and laying a linoleum floor covering for the King sitting room of the institution for which $103 had been raised at a tea given by Lady Eaton in June. The choice was left to Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Ivan Specht. It was suggested by Mrs. Specht that a W. I. tea and entertainment be held at the home for the pleasure of the old ladies there when the work is completed. Other improvements have been made by the branch in the appearance of the sitting room. "We appreciate the fact it has been named in honor of the community," said Mrs. Specht.

On behalf of the York County Hospital Aid, Mrs. Ivan Specht itemized important items purchased for the hospital during recent months, arising from contributions from numerous sources throughout York County. The local W.I. emphasized its desire to see a hypo needle cleaning machine installed, making use of the sum collected in King and district.

As chairman of the King City Association, a body recently formed to establish definite plans for a local community hall, Mrs. Ivan Specht spoke encouragingly of preliminary steps toward securing a charter of the organization. A hall would be vested in the municipality, governed by a board of nine. Mr. James Henry, a district resident who has experience in drafting canvass campaigns, has offered his assistance.

As representative on King Memorial Library Board, Mrs. Ross Walker spoke of the forthcoming change of library quarters as a temporary measure only. The barber shop is being moved to the park where books and equipment will be set up. The move is being made, she said, for the "convenience and comfort of the librarians."

Mrs. Ross Walker emphasized the importance of enlarging the number of subscribers not only for financial support from larger grants but to stimulate interest in reading. To small institutions, the government gives dollar for dollar, up to $200; the township grant is 50c on the dollar. While the cost of operation must be met and additional financial help is now required, there will not be a let down in the purchase of books, declared Miss M. Jarvis, head librarian, looking forward to the time when a permanent building is available as a "library home."

Prize Money Presented

On behalf of the W.I., Mrs. Harvey Folliott presented a cheque for $75, received from the C.N.E., to Mrs. Jarvis, the president. It was earned by the branch in a contest. Mrs. Leonard Shropshire made a donation of $38 to the branch, representing half of her C.N.E. prize money.

Among items of business was the reminder that Mrs. Jas. Rock is the branch delegate to the Area Convention on Nov. 5, 6 and 7 at Toronto, reservations to be made now. King accepted an invitation from Gormley W.I. as their guests on or about Oct. 24; the announcement of the district conference at Aurora, Oct. 19, 130 p.m., conducted by Miss Irene McBride of the department of W.I. service, the subject to be, "We Call It Human Nature"; the announcement that King will be host to the district annual meeting in 1952; the Food Forum at King

United church, Monday, Sept. 24, 8 p.m. The program was arranged by Mrs. Harvey Folliott. Questions and answers on subjects dealing with home economics and health gave an interesting bit of activity as various summaries were read. Mrs. Austin Rumble won the prize, a box of candy donated by Mrs. Folliott. Two vocal numbers were contributed by a trio of young ladies, Norma Wells, Janet Langdon and Freda Dent. Mrs. Gordon Wells was their accompanist. Mrs. Rumble was congratulated on her eighth wedding anniversary which also fell on Sept. 11 and was thanked for acting as hostess of the evening.
